THE CINCINNATI ELECTION.—We find the following despatches in the Nashville papers of the 5th. They are more explicit than any we the 5th. They are more experient man way we have seen:

Cincinnali, April 3.—The election is still undecided. Frand has been detected in the 12th Ward, which gave Farres (dem.) 500 majority, and it in proposed to throw out the entire vote: this done, Taylor, the American, will have about 100 majority. Bet fifthis ward is counted Farres will have 400 to 500 majority. The 11th Ward bellut box, which was destroyed, is supposed would have given Farren 500 to 700 majority.

Had the entire vote of the city been counted, the whole Democratic tinkst would have been elected by 500 to 1000 majority. There was no more rictual hast night. It is supposed ten or twelve were killed or mortally wounded strogutes. Fisches were discharged indiscriminately, and the only wonder is that the destruction of life was not greater. It was, slongether, the most diagraceful election day were experienced in Cincinnali.

April 4, 1 o'clock.—There has been no fight-ag to day. The Germans delivered up the can-on, but retained the wheels.
