MEXICO.
The Steamship Orizaba, arrived yesterday morning, having left Vera Cruz on a heavy load of sugar. By the arrival we are enabled to publish the following interesting information from the Orizaba regarding the late disturbances in that country.

PROGRESS OF THE REVOLUTION.
The Orizaba reports that the revolution is progressing rapidly in all directions. The forces of the Emperor have been defeated in several places, and the revolutionary army is now advancing towards Mexico City. The news is very encouraging for the cause of independence.

REPORTS OF THE REVOLUTION.
Reports from various parts of Mexico indicate that the revolutionary forces are making significant gains. The Emperor's army is being weakened by internal divisions and military setbacks.

THE REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.
The revolution in Mexico is now in its third year. Despite the hardships and setbacks, the people's desire for independence remains strong. The revolutionary forces are determined to continue their struggle until they have secured the freedom of their country.
