For sale in the Southern States.
New York, Nov. 10. The Commercial Union has been established in New York, and will publish on Monday next.

THE ELECTION.
The question of the right of suffrage for the colored people was discussed at length in the Senate yesterday. The report was not expected to be made until the 15th, but the Senate adjourned on that day, and the bill was not passed.

FORCED HEIRSHIP.
The strongest advocates of this law, if they could, would be glad to see it passed in its original form. It is a law which would be a great boon to the colored people, and would give them the same rights as the white people.
