

THE DAILY BEE,

The Office of the "Bee" is removed to No. 109 Chartres street, between Canal and St. Louis, New Orleans, La., Oct. 25, 1855.

THE NEW ORLEANS MAIL, lately removed to New Orleans, La., Oct. 25, 1855.

LET US KEEP THE PEACE.

There are some times people who seem to be in the majority, and others at the polls on the day of the election. We are induced to think that all who may be entirely disengaged, or cannot be the slightest outcast, or least manifested, will be in the majority, and hence a right to a nomination to contest the party of the opposition exclusively.

We do believe, however, that the other party contemplates anything of the sort. We are disposed to do them justice, and we feel that like ourselves, we are interested in the fate of our country. We do not feel that any laurels attached to the private peace and public under-standing is absolutely certain; yet that American party are resolved, if possible, that they shall be secured in the borders of our quiet land.

They are a few times people who are willing to do their duty, and at the polls on the day of the election.

WE ARE TAKING THE FORTRESS OF SHARJAH.

ALLES THE CRUCINING PEREOP.
