party presented an unbroken front, speaks of the late election in the State of New York as follows:

One Thing Settled—Whatever confusion there may be concerning the late election, one thing is clear. The attempt to inaugurate a sectional party on the single idea of a crusade against slavery has proved a failure, it has not obtained any held upon the popular mind. It has aroused no enthusiasm, and has not rallied to its standard the mass of the people. It has broken down in its first campaign. The Seward Whig leaders hoped to add to their numbers and recruit their strength by transforming the Whig party mit of Northern Abolition party, but in looking and their party has actually been enfectled by the attempted transition. Their organization is broken, and they poil less votes than they did a year ago.

The wrock of the hope of leachest a valuable lessen to political movement indicates the second property sectional required to the second property of the second political party which the safections, cannot command the popular approbation, and must ever prove powerless and evanescent. A political party which does not occupy a platform upon which places at sourcess on merely sectional approbation, and must ever prove powerless and evanescent. A political party which does not occupy a platform upon which political man of every section of the Cannot approbation, and must ever prove powerless and which does not propose of demangues for a single election, but it can have no prolonged existence, or any but a local reputation. The cread of a party must embrace principles which are not bounded by parables of lattitude, or by an entire the section at the first and is house of the whole country. ___

THE CALMITY AT ALEXADRIA.—The Wash-ington Organ of the 17th furnishes the an-nexed particulars of the terrible casualty at Alexandria, allusion to which was made by the telegraph a few days ago:
