COMMERCIAL.

Monday Morning, Jan. 30, 1865.

The demand for Cotton was again limited to-day, and only about 4,000 bales were sold at another galloon Are buyers, but sellers are very reluctant to submit to further concessions, and the market closes dull at the following quotations:

Ordinary	32@33c	Middling Fair	47@48c
Low Middling	37@38c	Fair	48@49c
Middling	42@43c	Good Fair	49@50c

Of Sugars, 60 hhds have been disposed of, at 10@10¾c for fair to prime; 9¾c for common; and 9½c for inferior. Of Molasses, 200 barrels were disposed of, at 80@82c per gallon.

Purchases of cargo consignments of Corn, Flour and Provisions were made to-day to a fair extent, at unchanged prices. Of Corn, 20,000 bushels were disposed of, at 1.30@1.31 per bushel. Of Flour, 1,000 barrels were purchased in Ohio, at $10.50 per barrel. Of Pork, 200 barrels were disposed of, at $31.50@32 per barrel. Of Bacon, 200 boxes were disposed of, at 16½c for Clear Sides, and 14½c for Shoulders. Of Lard, 100 tierces were disposed of, at 20c per pound.

Of Coffee, 500 bags were sold previously at 47½c per pound. Of Hides, 1,000 were disposed of, at 10½c for Dry Salted.

A lot of 50 bales Cotton from Cedar Creek, sold at 48c.

A lot of 50 bales Cotton from Bayou Sara, sold at 48c.

Of Sugar, 50 hhds were disposed of, at 10½c.

We quote Gold at 1.50 buying, and 1.51½ selling.

A lot of 50 bales Cotton from Cedar Creek, sold at 48c.

A lot of 50 bales Cotton from Bayou Sara, sold at 48c.

In Freights the demand is limited, and rates are unchanged. Engagements to-day are reported as follows: To Liverpool, 2,000 bbls Flour, 1,000 bbls Pork, 1,000 bbls Lard, 1,000 bbls Tallow, 1,000 bbls Rosin, 1,000 bbls Spirits Turpentine, 1,000 bbls Whiskey, 1,000 bbls Beef, 1,000 bbls Oil Cake, 1,000 bbls Oil, 1,000 bbls Cotton