Thirty-shurth Congress—First Senden.
WARRINGTON, Dec. 3, 1886.
This being the day for the assembling of the thirty-fourth Congress, as the hour of noon approached crowds were to be seen wending their way to the capitol, and the galleries, particularly that of the House of Represenstives were crowded.

The city is thronged with strangers, and the atreets wear quite a holiday aspect.

RENATE.

The Senate was called to order at noon, and the new members were sworm in.

The daily hour of meeting was fixed far noon, and after transacting other important business incident to the opening of a new scasion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPERSINTATIVES.

Mr. Forney, the Clerk, called the House to order at 12 of clock, when the confusion that had existed up to this time, was abruptly terminated. Two hundred and five members answered to their names on the call of the roff.
