A THIRD TICKET.

We advorted a day or two ago to the Convention of Radical Abolitionists assembled at Syracuse, and to the 3rd National Democratic Convention now in session at Cincinnati.... There is yet another important Convention, which is to meet at Philadelphia on the 17th inst. It styles itself the National Republican Convention, but is in no sense of the term "National," not having National principles in view, nor being composed of National delegates. It will be a Convention of Freesoilers, in which one or two slave States may be represented by spurious and self-constituted members.

The three prominent candidates for the Black Republican nomination are SEWARD of New York, CHASE of Ohio, and FREMONT of California. Judge MCLEAN was at one time favorably considered, but certain decisions of his recognizing the constitutionality and binding force of the Fugitive Slave law have thrown a cloud over his prospects, which his very recent judicial discovery of the incompetency of Congress to prohibit, but not to establish slavery in a Territory, has failed to dispel. Judge MCLEAN is entirely too conservative to suit the advocates of a higher law, and hence the contest will probably be confined to the three names just cited. SEWARD's strength consists in his ability, craft, subtle spirit of intrigue, and uniform devotion to the Abolition cause. It may be objected, however, that while he possesses an abundance of the sweeter in mode, he is singularly deficient in the fortiter in re. He has few claims upon the sympathies of the masses, and is too cold-blooded and calculating to arouse enthusiasm.

CHASE is a violent, uncompromising Freesoiler, originally of Democratic origin, and still professing that political creed. He is a man of strong passions, of decided and unequivocal principles, of ineradicable prejudices—as fanatical as GREWOOD, probably as sincere, but with infinitely more talent. The extreme character of his views would suit the fierce and unmitigated Abolitionists, but might repel the support, or chill the ardor of that large fraction which, really thinking it is vindicating Northern rights, is yet indisposed to hazard a dissolution of the Union.

FREMONT is young, and as a politician heretofore unknown. Why he should be thought of in connection with the Black Republican nomination, is somewhat puzzling. It is supposed that, being a South Carolinian by birth, his opinions will not be ultra, and will recommend him to the influential and numerous body of Northerners who disclaim any affinity with Abolition, but are in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State, and of keeping slavery where it is. The reputed enormous wealth of FREMONT may be a consideration in the canvass, but we do not believe an important one. Being now in political life, he has no past to commit, and but slight unpleasant reminiscences.

From these three it is next to certain that a candidate will be chosen. Is there a probability, or a possibility of his election? Not the most distant, in our opinion, though there is a remote chance that the Presidential election will be thrown into the House of Representatives. In the North, where alone a Black Republican electoral ticket will be run, every sign of the times indicates its defeat. The Freesoilers have little strength of themselves. They have sometimes succeeded by fusing with Whigs, disaffected Democrats, and the odds and ends of all parties. In November they will stand solitary and alone, and will exhibit their inherent weakness. A party that polled but one eighth of the vote of Rhode Island, and one eleventh that of Connecticut, need not create any apprehension in the South. The Black Republicans are powerful in Vermont, Ohio and Wisconsin, and these States we are willing to concede to them. Every other Northern State will vote for either PILLSBURY or the nominee of the Democratic Convention. Remember that a plurality is sufficient to effect a choice of Presidential electors, and remember, too, that three tickets will be in the field throughout the North. The chances of the Black Republicans may be fitly represented by an 0.

Thanks to the officers of the steamer Crescent City for late Louisville papers.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from beyond Mobile.

The steamship Granada, Capt. Griffin, sails this morning at 8 o'clock, for San Juan and Aspinwall, with about two hundred passengers.

Amongst the Wonders of the Day.

We have visited with considerable gratification the "repertoire" of foreign newspapers of all nations at Holloway's Pill and Ointment Establishment, 244 Strand, which presents an immense amount of information on all subjects political, mercantile, statistical, and philosophical, from at least 2000 foreign papers received in this establishment in the course of each week. This immense collection of journals affords, in the great city advantages to the enterprising capitalists, and commercial world generally, a course of intelligence most invaluable, and never before attained. The establishment is visited by the nobility, members of Parliament, contributors of the press, mercantile men, and also by an immense number of distinguished foreigners of all nations. It is managed by several clerks, who classify and file the papers in pori-folios, which they exhibit gratuitously to respectable visitors applying for information.—Morning Herald, London, January 28, 1856.

Louisianians in London will find the Bee regularly filed at Dr. HOLLOWAY's newspaper museum.

At a recent industrial exhibition of one of the London societies, among the other novelties was some curried leather from the skin of the white porpoise. A report says "it seems to possess the essential requisites of toughness and softness, and has been considered superior to the skins of land animals; the price is the same as that of the best calf skin; but a sample pair of boots shown is stated to have worn out seven soles."

The vessels comprising the Massachusetts whale fleet are returning in rapid succession, and a majority of the ships are well filled.... The ship E. L. B. Jones arrived at New Bedford on Monday, after an absence of four and a half years, and has on board 2500 barrels of sperm oil, one of the most valuable cargoes ever brought to that port.

A law has been passed by the Legislature of Iowa providing that railroad trains shall come to a full stop on approaching crossings, under a penalty of five hundred dollars, half to go to the informer. If the property is destroyed by a violation of this act, the penalty is double the value of the property, or from $5,000 to $50,000 for life, to be recovered by the representatives of the deceased—amount recovered to go to the widow and children, if any; if neither, to go as other personal assets.

SPIRITUAL DRAMA.—The New York Times speaks of a young lady near Boston, not quite sixteen years of age, who is engaged in writing an opera under the influence of the spirit of Beethoven. It is said she has never been instructed in music. These remarks that, being under age, of course all the music will be in a minor key: and in spite of the assertion that the fair composer never took any lessons upon a musical instrument, we nevertheless think that she must be a pretty good performer upon the lyre."

The sum of 800,000 francs has been placed at the disposal of M. de Morny, the French Envoy in Russia, to enable him to represent in a country in a fitting manner on the occasion of the Emperor Alexander's coronation. Napoleon will furnish him with six of his own carriages. Several European journals have, it is said, already engaged reporters to proceed to St. Petersburg, and engaged to pay them $20 a day for their services.

Sixty thousand dollars will, it is said, be expended in decorating the church at Notre Dame, Paris, for the occasion of the baptism of the Imperial Prince.

Chambers's Journal alludes to a discovery by Mr. Blundell, dentist, of London, of a process for extracting teeth without pain, and to another process described by Mr. Roberts, before the Scottish Society of Arts, for cauterizing the dental nerve, and stopping teeth without pain, independent of the ordinary mode of using a red-hot iron. Mr. Blundell's process is the application of ice to the jaw, which so benumbs the sensibility that the tooth is extracted without pain. The process of Dr. Roberts is to cauterize by means of a wire applied to the patient's tooth perfectly cold, and afterwards instantaneously heated to the required extent by a small electrical battery. Both of these modes have been successfully practiced, and their general use will introduce a new and valuable, and painful plan of dental manipulation.

Our Havana Correspondence.

HAVANA, May 28, 1856.

The greatest holiday in the whole year, in the Catholic country, is "Corpus Christi"—or in English, "The Body of Christ." You may be sure I had an opportunity of noticing the celebration. The body of Christ, i. e., the real blood of our Savior, inclosed in a gold tabernacle and blessed by the Pope himself, is carried through the city, and the whole population of Havana crowds the streets through which it passes. From the Cathedral down the Ignacio street, turning to the Obrapia, and up again calle Obrapia to the Cathedral, the soldiers form on both sides of the street a double file, through which the procession passes. At five o'clock all the bells ring, the guns of the Moro and Cabana are discharged; the doors of the Cathedral are thrown open, the procession appears, monks and priests at the head, the colored people following; priests again; officers of the army and navy; deputies of the corporation; the bishop; the Corpus Christi under a canopy, and all the people kneeling down where it passes; the Captain-General surrounded by a clerical staff of aids-de-camps in full uniform, gold spurs, the gold key of the chamberlain on his right shoulder, and his candle in his left glove; the Queen headed, two servants in red and yellow, carrying behind him his hat and staff on a silver plate, the horse guarded; priests again, singing "Te Deum Laudamus," or "Tantum Ergo in Sacramento," then soldiers of all kinds, the Voluntarios, the negro battalions, (all negroes, if they could, would be soldiers or parsons,) and finally the cavalry.

MAY 26.—A great deal of fear is felt respecting the fate of the steamship Empire City, due since the 24th or 25th. We consider her as good as lost, and expect news about her by the Black Warrior, due on the 30th, which will take to New York, and thence to Pt. Royal, M. Godard and his lady. Mr. G. sold his balloon, "La Ville de Paris," to a native of Havana, Mr. Perez, for $1200, with all the furniture, &c.—a very cheap bargain. Mr. G. intends to go to New York, Philadelphia, and Washington, and after making their several excursions, to start for Paris, from whence he will return and probably settle in Havana. He expresses his thanks to the people, and declares that nowhere has he made so much money as in La Regna de las Antillas.

A good deal of excitement prevails here about matters going on in Spain and Mexico. As to the first, the public opinion is that Great Britain will interfere in favor of Nicaragua, as to the latter, while public opinion is that Great Britain will interfere in favor of Nicaragua, as to the latter, while public opinion is ally think it proper for Spain to recover all of Mexico, whose inhabitants, as long as the legally constituted debt of forty millions of dollars is not paid, are still regarded as subjects of the mother country in Spain.

A new fortification is rising between the Punta and Castillo Principe on the shore of the sea, that will correspond to the Moro Castle.

A merchant here, whose name is Delachaire, failed some days ago for $50,000. This will be of some interest to our American friends, to whom we give a hint concerning the failure, that the man is not married.

At length they have succeeded in starting a new steam line between here and Spain, by purchasing one of the finest American steamers that has ever been owned in this port, the Ariel, which now, under the name of El Pajaro de Oceano, will make her first trip at the end of this month. Durkee & Livingston, the owner of two other steamers, failed for $400,000 about four months ago—a very nice sum, especially for a man who, as they would have an opportunity of hearing with his own ears, being on board of the steamer, declared that $20,000 was not too much for him to spend in an hour, if he really intended to amuse himself.

Great success has attended a new tragedy, "El Loco y Velasco, o el defensor del Trono," a patriotic subject. It is performed in the theatre Tacon, and repeated again and again, and always to crowded audiences, notwithstanding the fair sex. There is only one country in the world (we speak of the whole hemisphere) where there is no theatre open, that country is Havana, i. e., in Louisiana; but perhaps Nature has been willing to balance it by not giving to the Esquesitos so much aptitude for "flirtation" as she has bestowed upon the American ladies, the only ones in the world who make of love a matter of business.

MAY 27.—The Empire City made her appearance yesterday in the afternoon, the delay being caused by her being obliged to wait at Vallies for the Daniel Webster to take her passengers.

The rumor that Captain-General Concha will be recalled, gains daily more probability, and trustworthy persons already proclaim that the next Spanish steamer will bring the successor. This fact would prove that the power of Espartero, who is a brother-in-law of Concha, is not as great as many people believe, and that the capital of Spain is again on the eve of a revolution. As to Cuba, the loss would prove a severe one, for it is a matter of course that Concha has done more for this island than any other Governor ever before him—even General Tacon included.

The Russian General-Consul at Cuba, Mr. Ruttmeyer, is about to leave us for Europe on the 8th of June, in order to visit Karlsbad in Bohemia. He notified his departure to the Captain-General yesterday, and has appointed Mr. M. Stern, a native of Frankfort, as his successor.

The United States war steamer Merrimac paid us a short visit of one day, whereupon she proceeded to join the squadron directed to San Juan de Nicaragua.

The Black Warrior arrives here from New Orleans to-day, the 30th, and having landed the passengers for Havana, proceeds on her course to New York—having remained in port but a few hours.

THE MARKET.

The Sugar market is very active, with an upward tendency. No. 10 to 7 3-4 reals; 11 to 12, 7¼ a 8 reals; 13 to 14, 8¼ a 8¾ reals; 15 to 17, 9¼ a 9¾ reals; 18 to 20, 10 a 11 reals; whites, low to middling, 13¼ a 15¾ reals; good to fine, 15¾ a 16 reals; mascabado, clayed and dryed, 14¼ a 15 reals, with ¼ a ½ rls. per arroba more for special classes of extra quality. Stock here 270,000 boxes, as against 98,000 boxes. Exports all to-day—1856, 516,196; 1855, 672; 976; 1854, 599,033. Muscovadoes unaltered, 7 7-8 rls. per arroba, according to quality.

Molasses—Clayed, 7 reals.

Rum—92 a 96 per pipe of 20 to 23 degs.

Freight—Improving. A number of large American ships were withdrawn from the market at the advance of 5s. per ton. United States, 21 50 per box, 95 a 7 26 per bbd. for sugar; 83 a 3 50 per bbd. for molasses.

Exchange—London has been sold at 3 per cent. prem., ($30,000); New York, 6¾ a ¾ per cent. dis., New Orleans short sight 6 a 7 per cent. dis.

The Americans of Louisville have presented to GEORGE D. PRENTICE, of the Louisville Journal, a magnificent service of silver, in token of their esteem and respect.

MUSEUM.—We learn, says the Canton (Miss.) Citizen, of last Thursday week, that James H. Peak, overseer of Major William Kenny, was murdered on yesterday morning by Dave, one of the slaves on the place, by knocking him on the head with a club.

WOODWORK PHENOMENON.—It is stated that a Polish gentleman in Paris recently has transcribed the Holy Bible on one face of about the size of a mantel pier glass, presenting at first view the appearance of a beautiful temple, but on close examination every part of the elevation, each window and doorway, and every thing about the picture, is found to be distinct and regular handwriting, not one word of the Bible being omitted, no sentence supposed, and the chapters following each other in proper order. The work required two years and seven months of constant labor. When he commenced, he was entirely ignorant of the English language.

MASSACHUSETTS STATISTICS OF INDUSTRY.—The Boston Advertiser compiles the following summary of "Statistics of Industry," of Massachusetts from an official report made by the Secretary of State:

The value for the year of the products of industry, as found by adding the separate returns throughout the State, is found to be $256,920,801 75. If the allowance be made for defective and erroneous returns, the Secretary thinks the whole amount would be at least $256,000,000. The returned value, without allowance, shows an enormous increase of the productive energy of the State as compared with the previous returns, viz:

	Population.	Population.
1837	$ 96,923,616	700,000
1845	154,749,457	845,000
1855	256,920,801	1,133,123

That is, while the population has increased only 34 and 22 per cent. respectively, the value of the product of industry (returned) has increased 139 and 262 per cent.

The capital invested in the production of the $256,920,801 is $175,000,000, and the number of hands employed is 345,000. This is the summary of the returns; but of course out of the Massachusetts population of 1,133,123 nobody can believe that all except 345,000 are idle, even allowing for women and children.

We subjoin the totals for a few of the separate articles:

We have noticed the above account at random, from the list of articles of the great variety embraced in the return, and the extent to which the manufacture of some small articles is carried, is astonishing, presenting the largest branches of industry.

WOMEN-WHIPPING BOSS ON HAND.—On Monday night last a young lady, living with her mother somewhere in the vicinity of Bristol Mount, was dead and carrying around by a negro man. The failure to hear and see anything of the object of the following night. This was the very first night of the week that the object of the visit was ever known to be absent from home. The young lady had been remarkably practical, and many general men will introduce a new and valuable, and painful plan of dental manipulation.
