THE DAILY BEE.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 23, 1856.

Subscriptions by the Week.

The carriers of the BEE are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the raloof 25 cents.

Our Subscribers in the Fourth District.

Our regular carrier in the Fourth District being sick, we have placed a new carrier on the route. Should any of our subscribers in that quarter of the city fail to receive their paper, they will please make known the fact at our office.

THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

SOLTING.

The ties which bind men in the bonds of political fellowship are so loose and feeble now-a-days, that they are severed almost without an effort. The Setting season in politics has fairly commenced—North and South, East and West, we hear of seceders and dissentients. At the Cincinnati Convention Mr. PARSON, of Kentucky, formerly a member of Congress from the Louisville district, and in the olden time a Clay Whig of the strictest sort, astonished the country by making a speech in favor of BUCHANAN, and undertaking to pledge to that gentleman the votes of three hundred thousand Whigs!! Scarcely had the public amazement at this wonderful and complete somerset subsided, ere it was renewed by the startling declaration in the United States Senate of HAMLET HAMLIN—a life-long Democrat, and a leader of vast influence in Maine—that he could not stand the Cincinnati platform, and would hereafter be found in opposition to the Democracy.

The press, too, follows in the wake of politicians. A Buffalo Democratic journal has manifested its invincible hostility to BUCHANAN. In South Carolina, the Mercury—a very able sheet—takes BUCHANAN, but "spits upon" the platform; the Columbia Times refuses to endorse either; the Orangeburg Southron wants evidence of his soundness on the slavery question, and will not support him until fully satisfied on this score; the Newberry Mirror says he is the most objectionable man of all those brought prominently before the Convention; and suggests the propriety of the South uniting upon a Southern man for President, whether with or without the chance for his election. Finally, LOTT M. MORRILL, chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Maine, repudiates Mr. BUCHANAN—so that the extreme North and the extreme South appear equally dissatisfied with the Democratic Presidential nomination. This feeling is certainly not confined to any particular section. A portion of the Democrats object to Mr. BUCHANAN because he is an old Federalist of the Hartford Convention school. Another portion because he was, and is, a high tariff man. Another portion because he has a second bias in favor of seizing Cuba whenever it might be deemed expedient. Another portion because he is not identified with the passage of the Nebraska bill. And still another, because he has thrown himself into the hands of the filibusters.

Candor requires, nevertheless, the avowal, that the disposition to shake off party trammels is not confined to Democrats. Even for instance at the bolters from the Philadelphia National American Convention, who seceded, because FILLMORE was not anti-slavery enough for them, and because the American party did not think proper directly or indirectly to encourage Black Republicanism. Then look at the Convention of these seceders, splitting into two distinct factions, the majority nominating BANKS and JOHNSON, merely to shake them off at a convenient moment, and merge themselves with the negro-worshipers, while the minority nominated STOCKTON and RAYNER, in the forlorn hope of fusing two elements as heterogeneous as Americanism and Abolitionism.

This disposition to break up old party obligations is significant enough. It shows that the masses are getting heartily sick of the despotism of political leaders, and would like to act with independence, if they only knew how. Unhappily, too, it proves that political opinions have given way to geographical demarcations, and that the tendency to a sectional warfare is strong enough to dissolve even the cohesive power of public plunder. How it will all terminate cannot yet be predicted. Let us hope for the best, and confide in the native sense of our citizens, and the matchless wisdom of our institutions.

SPRING GOODS AT REDUCED PRICES.—Messrs. DURAL & KUNTZ, No. 80 Royal street, announce through our columns a great reduction of their magnificent assortment of spring goods. An excellent opportunity is now afforded to procure handsome articles of dress at unusually low rates.

We invite attention to the tariff of charges upon cotton to be received and shipped by the various proprietors and lessees of cotton presses—to commence on the 1st September, 1856, and to remain in force for one year from that date. The notice will be found in our columns.

DANZIGER'S CHEAP STORE.—At the two stores of THEO. DANZIGER, corner Robertson and Orleans streets, and 97 Circus street, will be found a beautiful assortment of spring goods which will be sold at seven lower prices than previously, with a view of reducing the stock.

THE RECENT MAIL ROBBERY.—The Mobile Tribune says: The United States Marshal, Col. Goldsby, came to Baldwin county last Wednesday for the purpose of searching for the missing mail bags. A portion of the money, drafts, &c., it will be remembered, had been previously recovered. On the examination of the forest near the residence of W. E. Lovelace, (the individual now in custody charged with the crime) three distinct places, near each other, gave evidence that a quantity of papers had been buried, and in two of these were found the iron hoops of the mail bags. A great many scraps of paper were taken from the ruins. One of these scraps was a portion of an envelope, with the post-stamp of Vicksburg, Miss., April 20th. Another was a draft, appeared to be a bank check, with a list of the engravers names, which read Hatch & Edson, New Orleans. It was signed — Cruzat. The piece obtained were very small, and in no instance could the full name of any person be found.

The schooner W. P., Captain Lee, sailed from Alexandria for Richmond, Va., on the 21st of May, with a cargo of 300 bbls. of herrings, and has not since been heard from. Some anxiety is felt with regard to this vessel, and any information would be gladly received.

RICE is now in St. Louis on the night of the 15th in the large retailing establishment of Hosmer, Shaw & Co., on Second street. This, with three adjacent stores, was destroyed. The loss is presumed to be very heavy.

NORTH AND SOUTH.—An analysis of the first ballot for President in the Cincinnati Convention gives the following result as between the North and South:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| For Buchanan | Free States | 103 | votes. |
| | Slave States | 34 | " |
| For Pierce | Free States | 50 | " |
| | Slave States | 74 | " |
| For Douglas | Free States | 19 | " |
| | Slave States | 12 | " |
| For Cass | Free States | 5 | " |

The same proportion was preserved throughout all the ballots except the last, in which Mr. Buchanan received the whole. It will be seen that nearly three-fourths of Mr. Buchanan's votes were from the free States—the Slave States giving him but 34.

The New York Herald of the 14th stated that a Committee of the American party had called upon Col. FREMONT to ascertain his opinions and that he had assured them that he agreed in the main with the doctrines of the American party. But the Tribune of the 16th says that this statement is entirely unauthorized—a mistake, and adds:

Col. Fremont recognises no American or Anti-American party, Whig, Democrat, Abolitionist, native or foreign in this canvass; but simply a union of the people, of all parties, on terms of perfect equality, to secure freedom and justice for Kansas, to overthrow the party and policy of the Administration, and by arresting the spirit of slavery extension and national domination, to put a stop to the sectional agitation that jeopards the peace of the country and destroys its dearest and best interests. In no other light does he desire to be regarded by conventions of parties or assemblages of the people, as his instrument to such ends does he allow give as liberty for the use of his name in connection with the Presidency.

TREASURE A SHIPWRECK.—A despatch from Halifax of the 14th says:

The ship Pallas, Captain Spillane, from Cork to Quebec, with one hundred and twenty passengers, sighted the coast of Cape Breton on the morning of the 30th of May. In the afternoon the ice observed that the commander was steering one way another, and the course of the vessel was then changed between Cape North and St. Paul's. At 10 P. M. she struck on the ledge of rocks at St. Paul's and lodged, the sea washing over her. The passengers became panic-stricken, and rushed into the boats, which soon almost immediately swamped and capsized the remain ing passengers. The vessel has since gone to pieces. Captain Sullivan, of the brig Sydney is now in Quebec. The ship is a total loss.

HAVANA.

ARRIVAL OF THE BLACK WARRIOR.

The U. S. mail steamship Black Warrior, J. W. Smith, Commander, arrived yesterday morning, with HAVANA dates to the 19th. She brings no news of importance. The letters of our correspondent furnish very full market reports. The weather in HAVANA is excessively warm, but the health of the city is reported pretty.

The Havana lottery was drawn on the 11th. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 35,498, $60,000; No. 14,189, $20,000; No. 10,981, $16,000; No. 3000, $8000; Nos. 17,428, 20,068, 21,243, 23,782, 24,235, 24,478, 27,797, 29,057 28,738, 31,216,—each $2,000; Nos. 6,396, 9,136, 9,584, 9,979, 14,636, 15,723, 16,969, 19,059, 19,376, 19,819, 20,767, 30,903, 33,663, 35,918, 33,156,—each $1200.

The following is a list of passengers by the Black Warrior:

PASSENGERS.—Mr. and Mrs. Neller, Mme. Dreschler, Bernard, J. Hampson, W. G. Crosse, M. Gallo, J. Goddad, Jr., La Coursette, C. J. Kee, Mr. Ferran, Miss Rosa Ferran, Mrs. Felipe, S. Dickinson, E. Bermudez and child, C. Lesaba, Lieut. Hunt, U. S. A., Mr. Marteese, Mrs. Hernandez and two daughters, J. B. Lamothe, Miss Lamothe, A. Rothera, A. J. De Guenna, Mme. Hernandez—28.

Our Havana Correspondence.

HAVANA, June 17, 1856.

DEAR SIR—Your readers will be kind enough to remember that from here ago, whilst communicating our official weekly market report, prepared by the brokers, who predicted a speedy downward tendency of sugar, I always added, that as to my opinion a decline in rates was a real impossibility, even if peace had not been made between Russia and the Allied powers. The results have justified my predictions; our market is firmer than ever before at half to one real over the highest quotations made since January. Consequently, but few houses are exporting for their own account, only those who ship under all circumstances; most of these have secure new orders on commission, if the limits are not too close to be executed. Another reason besides the peace between the great powers for the rise, consists in the dull state of our exchange market. Loods has been offered in vain at 6 per cent. premium, and New York at 1½ per cent. discount; and there is no doubt that London will go at par and New York at 1/2 and perhaps above. These matters have created a real stagnation in all transactions, and there are many people, having never experienced such a state of things before, who decline speculating.—To penetrate a little more to the bottom of these matters, we tried to get some news from other parts of the island, applied to the administrators of the custom-houses and endeavored to procure news from the real planters; but farmers from Russia to Spanish houses have arrived here, and that even a large number of transactions have been made between Russian houses and first-hand holders (planters), considering that the greatest part of our stock is in the hands of speculators, it is easily understood that prices must be more significant and the above rates are sustained with vigor. Consignments of 30,000 boxes have also given way and the demand is much less active. Cowes, Cork or Falmouth and a market, £2 5s. to £2 12s. 6d.; Great Britain direct, £2 5s. to £2 10s.; Hamburg and Bremen, £2 5s. to £2 7s. 6d.; Mediterranean, £2 15s. to £3; France, 66f. to 70f.; nominal; Spain, $2 to $2 50 per box sug.; United States, $1 25 to $1 50 per box sugar; 65 50 to 67 per hhd do.; $2 50 to $3 per hhd Molasses.

EXCHANGE.—We have again to notice a dull market for all descriptions of bills, and rates are looking downwards. For the Cadiz mail steamer, which lef. yesterday, drawers of A 1 bills on London refused to sell under 14 per cent. premium. The market closed, however, this afternoon dull and languid at our quotations. Bills on France are very dull and rates are made with considerable difficulty. We quote London, 13 per cent. premium; Paris, 100 per cent discount; Antwerp, 104 per cent. nominal; Madrid and Cadiz, par; New York at 1/2 per cent. discount; Boston, 1/2 to 1 per cent discount; Philadelphia, 1/2 to 1 per cent discount; New Orleans, short sight, 5 to 5½ per cent. discount.

IMPORTS.—We mention only those articles which are in demand, others being in abundance. Candles—Spanish are very scarce and in demand. Flour—The whole stock consisting of 30,000 barrels and has been bought up by speculators. Lard—Leaf lard very scarce; sales during the week were made by retail of 21 to 21½. Salted and barrels at 20½ to 21 per quintal. Butter and Hams wanted. Rice shows an upward tendency.

EXPORTS.—There have been three vessels cleared for the port of Boston, the one to load at Sagua, the other at Cienfuegos, and the third at Havana, besides the American ship Atlantic, now being chartered here at 13 reals to load for New Orleans.

Appointments by the President.

By and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Stephen D. Dillaye, of the State of New York, to be appraiser of merchandise, under the act approved March 3, 1851, in the place of George W. Pomeroy, declined.

Alonzo B. Conway, appraiser of merchandise at the port of New Orleans, Louisiana, vice Thomas Warren, resigned.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT CINCINNATI.—THE PIKE'S TEMPLE THEATRE, corner of Sixth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, June 18.—The Pike's Temple Theatre, corner of Sixth and Vine streets in this city, took fire yesterday and was totally destroyed. Together with a number of other buildings in the vicinity. The flames spread with such fury through the inflammable material with which the building was furnished, that nearly all the articles were removed from the auditorium. The fire department was promptly in service, but it was found impossible to stay the progress of the blazing mass, and all escaped from the steam fire-engines were directed against the houses in the vicinity of the conflagration, but while the theatre, were, however, destroyed. The contents of most of the houses were saved in a damaged condition. The aggregate loss is quite heavy.

The excitement about the neighborhood was very great, at one time it was feared that Greenwood Hill, a new and splendid building upon the opposite side of Vine street, would be destroyed, but it fortunately escaped. The theatre, in its interior arrangements, was rather behind the age, and was designed to remodel it soon. Among the theatrical personage who are heavy losers, are Messrs. Geo. Wood, Chas. Fisher, Miss Lina Perrin, Mrs. Felps, S. Dickinson, H. Rev. sandez and child, C. Lesaba, Lieut. Hunt, U. S. A., Mr. Marteese, Mrs. Hernandez and two daughters, J. B. Lamothe, Miss Lamothe, A. Rothera, A. J. De Guenna, Mme. Hernandez—28.

GOLD INTELLIGENCE.

REMOVAL FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT.—As will be seen by a notice in another column, the delegates to the convention of the American party to select an Elector and go thence to the First Electoral District, composed of the Parishes of Orleans, Jefferson, Plaquemines, St. Bernard, the Third District of the city of New Orleans and the Fitzhenry Trains, are requested to meet at the Marigny Buildings this evening at seven o'clock.

THE PONTCHARTRAIN ASSOCIATION.—This society is in accordance with previous notice, inaugurated their new rooms in the old Catholic cemetery, on Bayou road, with interesting and appropriate ceremonies. They have a large number of members, and by their zeal and charity, are daily increasing in usefulness. A good society, well organized, such as the Pontchartrain Association, will always reflect credit upon its members.

We congratulate them upon their fleetness not yesterday, and the increasing evidences of their prosperity.

THE NEW CITY POLICE.—We congratulate our citizens upon the gratifying evidences of efficiency exhibited by the new police, as is to be seen by a new report this morning.

Captain Morgan and his sub officers came down like so many fearful earthquakes upon the evils and evil-doers of the city. On the very second day after his appointment by Mayor Waterman, the captain exhibited his efficiency by arresting one some $600 or $1000 worth of the jewelry stolen from the store of Lemaistre, and by procuring the conviction of a couple of the Tchoupitoulas gang; Fruits in Juice, and Brandy Fruits.

We are pleased to be able to receive the satisfaction of our patrons, after trial, of any article advertised in our columns. We have the satisfaction to know several of our readers who have tried Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and pronounced it to be just what the advertisement says it is. We have several personal acquaintances, too, who were GRAY HEADED, but now it is used, and now their hair is restored to its original color, and their thinning hair is found to be in efficiency, and will give further information to others desiring it. This speaks well for the article, and we advise all who do not wish to appear gray headed to use Wood's Hair Restorative. Yours Patriot.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Senate was not in session on Saturday. The House of Representatives transacted no business. Mr. Thurston, of Rhode Island, Mr. Trafton, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Dean, of Connecticut, severally presented resolutions, lately passed by their respective State Legislatures, on the recent occurrences in Congress and in Kansas. The House then adjourned to Wednesday.

This is the commencement of the twenty-ninth week of the session. In the Senate Mr. Evans, of South Carolina, has the floor on the Kansas bill and in the House on his State against some of the imputations upon her revolutionary history; and Mr. Adams, of Mississippi, will give his views in support of the bill for the amendment of the naturalization laws.

The quiet of the city of Houma was thrown into a furore of excitement on Saturday evening, the 7th instant, by the report of a pistol, and the ground of a man by the name of Michael Hosey, who was found weltering in blood on the corner of one of the streets. A discharged gun was by his side, which was at once identified as the property of one about his person during the day. The wound was a dangerous one in the region of the stomach, and has since resulted in his death. It is unfortunate man pronounced in the declaration that he was shot by a person whom he did not know, but whose features he could identify. A number of the citizens of the place were brought before him that he might fix the real man upon the perpetrator of the deed, but to no effect. The jury brought in a verdict of "death occasioned by a pistol shot, in the hands of a person unknown."

The statement of the deceased seems to have been so vague and unsatisfactory, and the identification of the pistol so conclusive, that we are inclined to believe the shot accidental or premeditated on his own part.—Thibodaux Minerva.

INFAMOUS OUTRAGE UPON CHILDREN.—An old Sinner.—Daniel Irvin, a man eighty-seven years of age, residing in Hamilton township, near Hudson, was yesterday arrested by acting Constable Webb, of the Fifth Ward Police, on a warrant issued by Justice Quantelly, charging him with an infamous and unnatural assault upon a girl twelve years of age, from facts which have been transpired, it appears that during the past two years this old man has enticed not less than a dozen girls, varying in age from nine to fourteen years, to go with him, as they came from school, to his house, where he would take them, one at a time, into a room, and there commit the most infamous and unnatural acts upon their persons. In order to dissuade them from the course of conduct he would give them small sums of money, and by this means even induce the same children to visit him again and again. It is thought that the prisoner is insane, and such is the case. He owns the house in which he lives, and is said to possess other real estate in the Fifth Ward. Justice Connolly locked him up to await examination on the charge.—N. Y. News.

From Salt Lake City.

A company of forty-five persons, under command of Capt. Smoot, arrived at Atchison on the 9th. They left Great Salt Lake on the 22d of April. In the company were missionaries for different parts of the world, Chief Justice Kinney and family, U. S. Attorney and Marshal for the Territory, and a number of merchants, together with G. A. Smith, appointed by the Legislature of Deseret Territory for the admission of the State of Deseret into the Union. For the first four hundred miles the country was almost destitute of grass. At the South Pass they encountered a severe storm, which continued fifty-six hours. It was so cold that the animals could be kept alive by covering them with blankets, and feeding them with breadstuff. There was plenty of grass in the Black Sandie hills, though the grasshoppers were very numerous. The first emigrants were met at the South Fork of the Platte, and the party were out out of sight of emigrants for upwards of a hundred miles. The emigrants are of a valuable class, taking with them a large quantity of stock. They have had a fine military parade treated them with great kindness. The Indians seemed friendly, except a band of Cheyennes, who committed some depredations upon emigrants in the neighborhood of Little Blue.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15, 1856.—Intelligence from Mexico indicates that much alarm is felt by the government respecting the Spanish expedition, and that a note to that application for the protection of the United States. Southern members of Congress suggest the propriety of protection on the condition of a cession to us of the Tehuantepec route, with the circumjacent Territory.

Mr. Dallas' prize nothing of importance. The public had requested to be informed of the project of a special mission to the United States on Cuban affairs, but no communication had been made to Congress. The Queen of the Netherlands would be preferred there as an umpire, if arbitration was resorted to.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Senate was not in session on Saturday. The House of Representatives transacted no business. Mr. Thurston, of Rhode Island, Mr. Trafton, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Dean, of Connecticut, severally presented resolutions, lately passed by their respective State Legislatures, on the recent occurrences in Congress and in Kansas. The House then adjourned to Wednesday.

This is the commencement of the twenty-ninth week of the session. In the Senate Mr. Evans, of South Carolina, has the floor on the Kansas bill and in the House on his State against some of the imputations upon her revolutionary history; and Mr. Adams, of Mississippi, will give his views in support of the bill for the amendment of the naturalization laws.

The quiet of the city of Houma was thrown into a furore of excitement on Saturday evening, the 7th instant, by the report of a pistol, and the ground of a man by the name of Michael Hosey, who was found weltering in blood on the corner of one of the streets. A discharged gun was by his side, which was at once identified as the property of one about his person during the day. The wound was a dangerous one in the region of the stomach, and has since resulted in his death. It is unfortunate man pronounced in the declaration that he was shot by a person whom he did not know, but whose features he could identify. A number of the citizens of the place were brought before him that he might fix the real man upon the perpetrator of the deed, but to no effect. The jury brought in a verdict of "death occasioned by a pistol shot, in the hands of a person unknown."

The statement of the deceased seems to have been so vague and unsatisfactory, and the identification of the pistol so conclusive, that we are inclined to believe the shot accidental or premeditated on his own part.—Thibodaux Minerva.

INFAMOUS OUTRAGE UPON CHILDREN.—An old Sinner.—Daniel Irvin, a man eighty-seven years of age, residing in Hamilton township, near Hudson, was yesterday arrested by acting Constable Webb, of the Fifth Ward Police, on a warrant issued by Justice Quantelly, charging him with an infamous and unnatural assault upon a girl twelve years of age, from facts which have been transpired, it appears that during the past two years this old man has enticed not less than a dozen girls, varying in age from nine to fourteen years, to go with him, as they came from school, to his house, where he would take them, one at a time, into a room, and there commit the most infamous and unnatural acts upon their persons. In order to dissuade them from the course of conduct he would give them small sums of money, and by this means even induce the same children to visit him again and again. It is thought that the prisoner is insane, and such is the case. He owns the house in which he lives, and is said to possess other real estate in the Fifth Ward. Justice Connolly locked him up to await examination on the charge.—N. Y. News.

Editor Bee—Sir:

We are pleased to be able to receive the satisfaction of our patrons, after trial, of any article advertised in our columns. We have the satisfaction to know several of our readers who have tried Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and pronounced it to be just what the advertisement says it is. We have several personal acquaintances, too, who were GRAY HEADED, but now it is used, and now their hair is restored to its original color, and their thinning hair is found to be in efficiency, and will give further information to others desiring it. This speaks well for the article, and we advise all who do not wish to appear gray headed to use Wood's Hair Restorative. Yours Patriot.
