"The vindication of my preference, is, that, Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, prudent and conscientious."—HENRY CLAY.

"It does be those, North or South, who oppose the administration for the North, as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should receive suffrages to me. For my own part I am for my country, my whole country and nothing but my country."—MILLARD FILLMORE, ON HIS LANDING AT NEW YORK.

THE TRUE ISSUE.

The people of the North should be constantly recalled to the true issue of the present contest. The South should ever be kept prominently before the people as the aggressive party, and the North as the party acting on the defensive. The South should never be permitted to divert the people from the real issue, by attempting to create false issues. The South should sustain the Democratic party, because it is the aggressive party, and the North should support the Republican party, because it is the party acting on the defensive. This is their entire duty, and they should not be permitted to depart from it. The South, abandoning the aggressive position of principle, and attempting to identify the people of the North with the aggressive party, confine their energies to the useless attempt to show, by every chance, and that is the only hope of success for the South is to vote for Buchanan. This is their entire duty, and their only salutary employment. Let the people of the North, and especially the friends of Fillmore, not be misled by these attempts of the aggressive party, amongst the rifle clubs, which are occasionally perpetrated by the irresponsible assault on the unoffending accumulation of property, such as stylish him in the streets. Let this miserable and contemptible game be exposed by the Republican press, and it will be seen that it is only a few desperate characters, who are wholly unworthy of the confidence of the people, who have recourse to such means. There is no doubt that Mr. BUCHANAN will receive the vote of Northern States, but the hope of the Democratic party is to secure the vote of Southern States, and thus elect Mr. BUCHANAN. Every effort will be made to secure the vote of Pennsylvania. How many votes Mr. BUCHANAN will receive from the Northern States, it is impossible to say, but it is certain that he will not receive the vote of a single Northern State, unless it be New Jersey, which is very doubtful. Mr. BUCHANAN will not receive the vote of New York, Northern Ohio, Northern Indiana, Northern Illinois, Northern Iowa, Northern Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, Northern Pennsylvania, Northern Maine, Northern New Hampshire, Northern Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Northern New Jersey, Northern Delaware, Northern Maryland, and Northern New York. Every Northern State will vote for FILLMORE, and the friends of Mr. BUCHANAN
