THE DAILY BEE,
PUBLISHED BY
G. F. WEISSE & CO.,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.
G. F. WEISSE. S. HARBY.
E. DUVERGER. N. DUPUIS.
DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance).....$13 or COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance).....$ 6
In all cases, subscribers must give one week's notice in writing before they can be allowed to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST. NEW ORLEANS: THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1856. VOL. XVII—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXX—WHOLE NO 10,161.

THE DAILY BEE.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 9, 1856.

Subscriptions by the Week.

Carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the rate of 25 cents.

Mr. N. J. Quirk is the only person authorized to collect accounts in the city for the New Orleans Bee.

☞ The foundation of my preference, is, that, Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, national and conservative."—HENRY CLAY.

☞ If there be those, North or South, who oppose an administration for the North, as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should have my suffrages to me. For my own part I see only "1 country, my whole country and nothing but my country."—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT New York.

REGISTER YOUR NAMES.

No person, though fully qualified by birth, residence, or residence, can vote at the approaching Presidential election, UNLESS HE IS REGISTERED.

☞ Northern Mail failed yesterday from Charleston.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Democratic papers of the South are systematically endeavoring to come in eulogizing the right of property in slavery, in lauding Mr. Buchanan as the best friend the South ever had, and in denouncing the North with a dissolution of the Union should Mr. FREMONT be elected. Everywhere in every direction we see the people of the South as well as South, appealing to the sectional prejudices of the Southern States, and uttering sentiments which, if sincere, stamp them as little better than Fremont's "black republican" allies. As the Belfast Journal says: "With the history and principles of the party afford a triumphant refutation of the charge—some know this better than who make it. The rescue who thinks to serve, and the stump orator who speaks to the ear of the most sacred and solemn in the land, is the Day of Atonement. Yom Kippur, and is observed with rigid fast by the people of Israel. So that a stranger to the ceremonies of this day, that hundreds of Hebrews, from every part of the State and from Maryland, flock to our city expressly to unite with their brethren in divine service, to prostrate themselves before their Creator, and to sue for the transgressions of the year. Those lax and careless members of the congregation who pay no attention to the Sabbath, who habitually pursue their business on the Sabbath, and hardly remember that it is a day of rest, nevertheless fulfill the solemnities of the Day of Atonement, in a strict, and in one that is absolute. It is fasting at the setting of the sun, and until starlight this evening. Almost all hours abstinence from food is observed, both by the Congregations of Portuguese—of our Hebrew brethren who have arranged by the chosen people. Across the attendance to-day will be large. The ceremonies are alike impressive, though a large portion of the services, being chanted in the Hebrew, must be unintelligible to most persons. The sermon will, however, be delivered in English and from the learning and eloquence of that gentleman, an excellent discourse is expected.

Minnesota, we now said to have a population of two hundred thousand souls. In the census it did not contain five hundred. At the present season of the year eight thousand emigrants stopped at three of the principal towns in this town is rapidly becoming the centre of the North and West of Chicago, and other points, mere centers of speculation, as they are, at times more conspicuously in the newspapers. It occupies an admirable position at the head of steamboat navigation on the Mississippi, and in the course of time will hence bids fair to become one of the most populous cities of the Union.

DEATH OF AN AUTHORESS.—The Charleston (S. C.) Courier announces the death of Mrs. Clarissa Woodson, wife of Mr. Thomas Woodson, Jr. She died very suddenly on Saturday last, at Scotlyar, in Abbeville county. She was the author of her brother, Dr. William H. Carr. Mrs. Woodson was the authoress of "The Southern Home," and another work for children, just issued from the press of the Lippincotts, in Philadelphia.

FLORIDA ELECTION.

Through the kindness of a gentleman of Mobile, we received yesterday the annexed dispatch:

"MOBILE, Oct. 6.

"The Democrats have carried Escambia county by a small majority.

Santa Rosa county has gone for the Americans by 54 majority.

Friends in Pensacola think the State has gone for the Americans.

There was gross corruption practiced at the Navy Yard."

In 1853, when Pilsach carried Florida by 1,443 maj., Escambia gave him 11 majority and Santa Rosa gave Henry, 99 majority.

We are authorized to state that Col. R. A. Stewart will apply, on A day or two, for the defense of Dow. Wintemute, on ex parte, the correspondence published in Saturday's Courier.

NATIVITY OF FREMONT.—The question of the nativity of Col. Fremont, about which there is so much speculation, is at length in the fog as ever. It is somewhat singular that, of all the candidates now proposed to the canvass, he is the only one concerning whom no reliable or authentic biography has been or can be furnished by his friends. In fact, it cannot be proved that he is a native of the country, and the New York Express has evidence that he was born in Lower Canada, and cannot, of course, hold the Executive office. Then are large numbers of the Northern people who are determined not to recognize his election as valid, (if he should receive a majority of the electoral votes,) or as a constitutional President, until it is fully proved that he is a native of the soil; and the whole South will repudiate him under any circumstances; thus he stands but a small chance to occupy practically the Executive chair.

There is one thing, however, which is thoroughly proved, namely: that he is from "the wrong side of the blanket." This, however, makes him more legitimately the candidate of the triple F F F's—Freesoil, Freelove and Fremont. We doubt whether the Administration "with the bar sinister" will ever be so engrafted on, or defile the arms of the Union.

BARSWOOD PAPER.—The Albany Evening Journal printed its entire edition, daily and semi-weekly, on Wednesday last, on an improved quality of basswood paper. It is nearly two years since Mr. Sharpless undertook to make paper from wood fibre, and he has succeeded at length in producing a very excellent article, though he has had to invent himself the entire art, for he never saw even a paper-mill till after he began the manufacture of the basswood article. He has to discard all labor educated in the old processes of manufacturing paper.

ARTHUR, who was convicted some time ago at Cincinnati of manslaughter, for killing Allison by an infernal machine, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years.—There is yet an indictment for murder pending against him for killing Mrs. Allison.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRESIDENT.—His Excellency Franklin Pierce, President of the United States, arrived in this city last night at 9 o'clock. He left Washington at an early hour yesterday morning, stopping a little more for a short time, where he was received by the military, and breakfasted with the Mayor; then left for Philadelphia, where he dined, and quitted that city by the Lancaster r. r. train for New York.

His Excellency was accompanied by Mr. Sidney Webster, his Secretary, by Gen. Anderson, of Tennessee, and Col. Hoover, Marshal of the District of Columbia.

When the cars reached Jersey City, His Excellency alighted and took the ferry-boat for New York.

On reaching the Astor House, where he was to sleep, he was met by Hon. John McKeon, John R. Brodhead, Esq., John Cochrane, Esq., Judge Connolly, Henry Lieberman, Esq., Mr. Stetson, of the Astor House, and the reporters. He was introduced to these gentlemen by Mr. Sidney Webster.

His Excellency, in reply to a humorous way, asked Mr. John Cochrane how he was running. Mr. Cochrane replied that he was running very well. His Excellency said, "I trust you will not run off the track."

His Excellency then said to his visitors, "Gentlemen, I am glad to see you. I shall shortly retire. I am very happy to see you."

His Excellency announced his intention to leave the city this morning at 7½ o'clock, for Worcester.—N. Y. Times, 8th ult.

ALMOST GIVING IT UP.—The Buchanan organs make loud boasts of what they call the great strength of their candidate. He has non-slaveholding States, but their boasts are not less vain and empty than many. It is well understood by all intelligent men in the United States that Buchanan's strength there amounts to nothing, and all well-informed politicians throughout the country understand the same important fact.

Gov. B own, one of the United States Senators from Mississippi, is among the most violent and most active and zealous of the Democratic politicians of the South. He has been among the chief directors and agents of all the Democratic movements at Cincinnati, City designed to control the result of the elections in November. Well, we have just read a letter addressed by him on the 6th inst. to the editor of the Holly Springs Democrat in his own State. In that letter he confesses his fears that Mr. Buchanan will not get a majority of the non-slaveholding States since California, and actually acknowledges that the Democratic party in Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Belmont, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Iowa.

We think that Governor Brown and the rest of the active Democratic operatives at the seat of government may well give up also Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Indiana, the only non-slaveholding States that they profess to have a hope of, for the chances are against either of the four's going for their candidate. But the bare acknowledgment that they have abandoned all hope of the remaining twelve is well calculated to startle those tens of thousands of Southern Democrats who have been basely and outrageously beguiled and betrayed by their lying organs into a belief in the strength of their party in the free States. We wonder if the honest masses of the Southern Democracy will not promptly abandon the hopeless cause of their own candidate when convinced of the truth, and go over to their whose chances are infinitely better? Let us ask in order to secure the defeat of the candidate of the Northern abolitionists. Let this be done, and the country is safe.

[From the Richmond Whig.]

A Prominent Visitor to Virginia!

There is no mistake this time. The Democratic electoral ticket again in Virginia at last, Elsewhere, as a matter of news, we publish the proceedings of the Virginia Republican Convention, which met at Wheeling on the 18th of September. We take these from the Wheeling Intelligencer, which accompanies the publication of them with the following editorial remarks:

"It will be seen by reference to the proceedings that the Convention was most enthusiastically held in Wheeling, that our esteemed fellow-townsman, Joseph Applegate, Esq., has been appointed one of the electors. He has been appointed one of the electors. He has one time "thanked God there was no Republican party in that District," the Judge might now add that he "feels thankful" for the circumstance by the present. If he only avoids using "incendiary" language, he will get along safely.

"It will also be seen that Thos. J. Smith and Richard Brenneman, Esqs., of Hancock county, are also on the electoral ticket. All the above gentlemen are life long Democrats, prominent and influential members of the Democratic party. Two years since, Mr. Hewitt was elected and Hancock in the Legislature of Virginia."

There it is! Just as we expected! "All old and influential members of the Democratic party!" And one of them was but a Democratic member of the Virginia Legislature! Amazing and unprecedented! Democrats from the ranks! Oh! "Ghastly Fun," indeed and devoted "Ghastly Fun," to be you, forsooth, who call forth your Alleghanian editor, Mr. Smith for the Fan Handle. The enemy is at your door in the persons of "prominent and influential members of the Democratic party" of Bruno Protector of the States, why hang yo!

ROMAN.—Sebastopol, if we may credit the assertions of some of the German journals, is likely to be a more magnificent city than that which it cost the allies so much to destroy. A number of foreign workmen are engaged in rebuilding the place, which, it is said, have been approved by the Emperor Alexander. The Russians are actively engaged in fortifying the Bay as well as Sebastopol. One may be allowed to ask if any British diplomatic authority is to be sent to the Black Sea to watch how the Russians observe the articles of the Treaty of Paris.—The modifications recently made in the army of the Caucasus clearly indicate that other operations are to be resumed again in that quarter.

The Russian journals are filled with details of the coronation of the Emperor, on the 7th inst. On the morning of the 26th July, the weather was very sultry, and a general feeling of suffocation was felt. At length a heavy rumbling broke was heard, and by a very violent shock of earthquake. Almost the whole house were completely shaken down, and a great many were killed and wounded. Only the palace was left standing. Of the 500 houses in Gelendjik not five remained habitable.

SCENES AT A FUNERAL.—It is seldom that a paragraph is published portraying more vividly the degradation of human nature than the following from the Philadelphia papers:

"An exciting scene took place yesterday afternoon at the funeral of a child, in Kensington. A respectable woman died about eight months ago, and her husband, who is a drunkard, was left with the children to support. Yesterday afternoon the funeral took place from the house, and the husband, who was under the influence of liquor, was present. Some time during the ceremonies he left, and all gave up for lost. Shortly after the procession started for the grave-yard, the husband, accompanied by a number of his friends, made his appearance, and, in a state of intoxication, commenced abusing the corpse, and threatening to throw it out of the hearse. The friends of the deceased interfered, and a fight ensued, in which the drunken husband was severely handled. The procession then moved on, and the husband, with his friends, followed, cursing and swearing all the way. On arriving at the grave, the husband jumped into it, and refused to allow the corpse to be interred. He was finally dragged out, and the funeral proceeded. The husband, with his friends, followed, and, on arriving at the grave, he jumped in, and refused to allow the corpse to be interred. He was finally dragged out, and the funeral proceeded. The husband, with his friends, followed, and, on arriving at the grave, he jumped in, and refused to allow the corpse to be interred. He was finally dragged out, and the funeral proceeded. The husband, with his friends, followed, cursing and swearing all the way. On arriving at the grave, the husband jumped into it