THE DAILY BEE,
PUBLISHED BY
G. F. WEISSE & CO.,
PROPRIETORS AND PUBLISHERS.
G. F. WEISSE, L. MARBY,
H. DUVERGER, JR. DUPUOY.
DAILY PAPER (one year in advance) $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER (semi-weekly, (one year in advance) 5 00
No paid news, subscriptions must and give one month's notice of change before the can be altered to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST. NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16, 1856. VOL. XVII—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXX—WHOLE NO 10,166.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.
One square of ten lines, first insertion, $1 50; each subsequent insertion, 75 cents. Half and third prices for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted for less than one dollar for every TEN lines for each insertion.
Advertisements on the first page $1 per square each insertion.
Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each insertion.
Liberal deductions of Journal Advertisers who insert their advertisements within the line of their paper, or occupy at least one square every other day.

THE DAILY BEE.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16.

Subscriptions by the Week.

The carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the rate of 25 cents.

☞ Mr. J. Oliver is the only person authorized to collect accounts in the city for the New Orleans Bee.

☞ The foundation of my preference, is, that, Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, wise and conservative."—HENRY CLAY.

☞ "If there be traitors, North or South, who desire to see administration for the North, or against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should get our suffrages to me. For my own part I consider my country, my whole country and nothing but my country."—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT New York.

REGISTER YOUR NAMES.

No citizen is A fully qualified by birth, naturalization, or residence, can vote at the ensuing election, UNLESS HE IS REGISTERED.

The Republican Association assembled yesterday from 9 o'clock A. M. to 4 P. M.

DEMOCRATIC INCONSISTENCIES.

We have had occasion, in illustration of the Democratic party's character, and of the unscrupulousness necessarily felt in its integrity, to remark incidentally, that the high-toned sentiments of honor reserved here for the use of political opponents, were remembered in the splendid eulogy pronounced by Gen. WARD, on the Democratic candidate for Governor of Cincinnati. He told us that Democrat had his principles on the altar of his country, and had sacrificed the cloak of party to the good of the whole country. Such a principle was not to be found, when a Democratic candidate for Governor of Louisiana was to be elected. Then party was preferred to country, and the Union. Could there be a more striking illustration of the truth of our remarks, than the following extract from the Democratic Delta, of this morning:

"Mr. Buchanan is the only Democratic candidate for the Presidency who has been elected by the people. He is the only Democratic candidate who has been elected by a majority of the people. He is the only Democratic candidate who has been elected by a majority of the people of Louisiana. He is the only Democratic candidate who has been elected by a majority of the people of Louisiana, and who has been elected by a majority of the people of Louisiana, and who has been elected by a majority of the people of Louisiana, and