AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma and Consumption.

"Wisdom shall have shown to us, and the great of the earth shall have flattered it."

Never could this be said with more truth than it now applies to this remedy, for affections of the Throat and Lungs. The combined learning and power of the greatest chemists in the world, and the testimony of the most eminent physicians, have failed to produce its equal. Nor can it be produced. Clergymen, Lawyers, Statesmen, Actors and Singers, all have proclaimed it the best friend of the Throat and Lungs. The extended knowledge and power over consumption which it has imparted to the public entitles it to the confidence of every one who knows the dangerous character of these diseases. Those of exacerbations are not ashamed to testify to the public the benefits they have derived from it, and we feel confident that no one will neglect the use of it who has a cough or a disease in the Throat or Lungs, if they will but give it a fair trial. Even the first dose will give relief to the patient, and its use, according to the directions, will be found sufficient to cure every ordinary case of Pulmonary Complaint which is not beyond the reach of medicine. It is known to many eminent Clergymen that they have relieved Public Speakers, who were prostrated by hoarseness, by a few doses of this Pectoral. Singers and Actors will find that the use of it will remove Hoarseness and
