CHOLERA IN THE INTERIOR.—The Morehouse Advocate says:

We are pleased to learn from farmers in different portions of Morehouse that the growing crops are in a healthy appearance. On the other day Mr. E. T. Wilson, of Bastrop, called on us with specimens of cotton and corn, which he had gathered on his plantation in the upper portion of the parish, and which were in a flourishing condition. We are told that the health of the rest of the farmers in that section is also good. We are sorry to say, however, that the scourge of the cholera has appeared in the parish of Ouachita, and has carried off many of its victims. Dr. Bonner, of Monroe, has been in the practice of Dr. J. H. C. Brady, in the case of the latter gentleman. Mrs. Barry was sent before the court by the coroner's inquest to a slave in her grocery in Dryades street.

Deputy Coroner Cowan was held 600 for contempt in refusing to give evidence before the coroner's inquest in the case of Mrs. Barry. Mr. Griffin was held for misdemeanor in refusing to obey the lawful order of the coroner. Mr. Lamothe was held for contempt in refusing to appear as a witness before the coroner's inquest. Mr. Chaffe was held for misdemeanor in refusing to obey the lawful order of the coroner
