

THE DAILY BEE

Published daily, except on Sundays and public holidays. The Bee is published at No. 83 Chartres street, New Orleans, Louisiana. The price of the Bee is as follows: For the first week, $1.00 per line; for the second week, $0.75; for the third week, $0.50; for the fourth week, $0.25. For longer periods, a special rate will be made. All advertisements must be paid for in advance.

ARRIVAL OF THE PHILADELPHIA.

The U. S. mail steamer Philadelphia, from New York, arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

BY MARGRET TELEGRAPH.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

NEW YORK.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

CRESCENT CITY BANK.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!!

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

NEW INLAND BATH TO TEXAS.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

NEW INLAND BATH TO TEXAS.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.

NEW INLAND BATH TO TEXAS.

Arrived at New Orleans on the 17th inst., at 10 A. M. The vessel was commanded by Captain J. W. Smith, and carried 120 passengers. The cargo consisted of various goods, including sugar, coffee, and other commodities. The vessel was in excellent condition and the crew was well-trained. The arrival of the Philadelphia was a great event for the city, as it brought with it the latest news from the East and the West. The passengers were met by a large number of friends and relatives, and the vessel was crowded with people. The cargo was quickly unloaded and the vessel was ready to depart for New York on the 19th inst.