OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST.

THE DAILY BEE.

FEBRUARY MORNING, FEBRUARY 23
A NUMBER OF NEWS FROM THE BUREAU

The Administration of the Criminal Law.

We received a copy of an act regarding the Juvenile Committee of both the Senate and the Legislature, entitled "An Act to Amend the Statute Relative to the Administration of the Criminal Law in the City of New Orleans."

In accordance with the suggestion of the Legislature, it is voted to repeal the section of the statute

which provides that the Juvenile Committee

is to consist of five members.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The duals are pending before the House, James B. Clay and Another, in which Hon. Harney and Columna are the parties, will probably be settled at a meeting of the House on Monday.

A mutual altercation took place yesterday between Lieutenant Gen. and Commander Boutwell, as yet undeveloped.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Senator Davis is here to attend the trial.

Mr. Seward and others are expected to attend the hearing Wednesday or Thursday.

Mr. Tilden's speech was received by a standing ovation in the chamber proceedings, and a general expression of confidence in his judgment.

The public interest in the nameless procession of the House has been overcome by requiring them to be held outside the city, instead of by the usual methods of public punishment.

At last, however, the testi-

ment of the accused will be delivered in the name of justice.

SPAIN AND MEXICO.

New York, Feb. 21.—The Hispano-

Mexican War has become so difficult and obscure that it is to be determined.

The Spanish and Mexican forces

retreated from the frontier.

There are now no Spanish or

Mexican troops in this country.

JUDGE KANE.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—Judge Kane died

last night.

TWENTY-SECOND IN RICHMOND.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 21.—The State's

Status was inaugurated to-day. Governor

John L. Helm and First District

Representatives were elected to the Senate and the powers and privileges

of the State were transferred to the new Legislature.

SHIP BURN-OUT.

Hurricane, Feb. 21.—In the Channel

State, lying in the river opposite, was burnt last night; she is a total loss.

MARSHES.

New York, Feb. 21.—Middling Cotton (up to $12) and flax (up to $15) and milled corn

(up to $18) were offered yesterday.

The price of cotton is about

as high as it can go for a short time.
