COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE PICAYUNE,
THURSDAY EVENING, October 9, 1857.

The COTTON market continues greatly depressed, and heavy sales have been made at irregular prices, but there is no market to admit of quotations.

In TOBACCO, we hear of no transactions of any moment.

In SUGAR and MOLASSES, nothing of any moment has been done.

FLOUR has been in good request, with sales of 13 ⁰ bbls unbranded, at $4 25, 300 superfine at $5 ⁰ bbl, and some 1200 at $5 75 ⁰ bbl.

In CORN and MEAL we have sold at the old rates, and 400 sacks of ⁰ bushel.

The sales of OATS embrace 1200 sacks at 50 cents ⁰ bushel.

In BRAN, 1200 sacks sold at 76@77½c, and 300 sacks at 80c ⁰ 100 lb.

HAY is still retailing at $27 50@28 ⁰ ton.

The sales of BACON are confined to retail at 15½c for clear sides, and 13½c ⁰ lb for shoulders.

In LARD, we hear of sales of any convenience to the amount of 1,000 bushels French SALT was sold yesterday at 55c ⁰ bushel.

In WHISKY, No sales reported sold at 22½c, and unchanged at 24c ⁰ gallon.

The sales of COFFEE include 300 bags at —, 324 at 11½c, and 500 at intermediate at 9 @ 11½ ⁰ lb.

In HAY, 140 bales Western sold, on the levee, at $27 50 ⁰ ton.

In LARD OIL, 20 bbls No 2 sold at $1 05, and 20 bbls at $1 10 ⁰ gallon.

In FREIGHTS, we hear of one ship taken yesterday for Liverpool at 9-16d, for cotton. Vessels on the coast for Liverpool have still nothing at 7-16.

In EXCHANGE still more dull and depressed. Our quotations are nominal.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

MADAME CHARPAUX,

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.

THIS part of this Institution comprises a period of years back, that met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux, all years, no pains to make her seminary equal to the institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city, and has fitted it up to take the boarders and pupils; she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, grammar, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms all her young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical schools in Paris, and ex artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music in the schools. Besides these regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the rules will not prevent the performances, as Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the execution of the regular keys and notes, and that at the same time and without charge.

In order to excite emulation among the pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month, there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her pupils, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle work.

During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock and close at 11. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 P. M. In winter, the hours will be from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., and close at 3. No one admitted after 9 o'clock, P. M.

Terms:

Boarders—washing excluded..... $200 per month
Half Boarders..... 12 do
Day Scholars, highest class..... 8 do
Do do 2d class..... 6 do
Do do 3d class..... 4 do

Lessons on the Piano, Guitar and Singing will be charged separately.

Madam Charpaux respectfully invites young ladies parents to call and visit the establishment.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

MADAME PARENT,

Corner of Rampart and Du Maine streets.

THIS Institution occupies one of the best locations in the city of New Orleans for health and many other important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are perfectly airy and well aired.

There are four due dormitories with dressing cabinets, also apartments for the sick, though the house, a splendid terrace commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the lake.

The best attention will be offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.

Madame Parent is always present with her pupils the teachers during the hours of class, and superintends personally their studies. There is also a large number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the institution.

Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages, as accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Dancing, and Embroidery, &c.

The terms are moderate, and the Institution is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.

Parents will find in this establishment, respecting the special attention that is paid to the English, as best as Madame Parent's native language. The best professors are employed, and it is to the public that the French young ladies who have been educated by her speak in the first city in the southern confederacy.

Mr. Parent, the well known music teacher, will superintend the vocal department.

For terms apply at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.

N. B.—YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different States of the Union will be conveyed gratis to and from the institution. oct6

A CARD.

Embalming the Dead

P. CASANAVE,

UNDERTAKER,

No. 37 Magazine-st., between Customhouse and Bienville streets, (Second Hatrack).

HAVING purchased from Dr. Holmes, of New York, the celebrated process, not only in the city of New Orleans and its environs, but also on the other side of the Atlantic, of embalming the dead, that art will be attended to at all hours, by day or by night. He takes this method of the opportunity to assure the public that he has had a long experience in any and every thing whatever appertained, but remains to their natural beauty.

He has had a large tomb erected in Cemetery No Two, Bienville street, similar to those in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, which will be destined to receive temporary, embalmed bodies previous to their being taken for interment in other countries. The bodies can be kept in this tomb eight or ten days after death. Rates and details of the deceased will be at all times subject to the inspection of the undertaker at all time.

Another Professor will be chosen during the whole year. Parents wishing the city during the summer can have their children at the College, where their health and comforts will be carefully attended to, while their studies will not be interrupted.

The Lessons in the French and Spanish languages are well ventilated—the main study being 70 by 40 feet.

The Classes are on very large and well enclosed play grounds, which afford ample means for air and exercise.

The Pensions are gentlemen of sound learning and experience, and will be aided by skilful and efficient Professors.

No pains are spared to support a solid education.

Without such knowledge of the English language, correctly, the special attention that is paid to the English, and Madame Parent's native language. The best professors are employed, and it is to the public that the French young ladies who have been educated by her speak in the first city in the southern confederacy.

Mr. Parent, the well known music teacher, will superint
