PARISIAN ADVERTISEMENTS.

A decree rendered by the Imperial Court of Paris, on the 13th August, 1854, ... Dr. Guillie ... Elixir ... Paul Gage ... Elixir ...

ELIXIR DOCTOR GUILLIE, PAUL GAGE,

Arthmas, Catarrh, Whooping-Cough, Colds, Consumptive Cough, Inflammation of the Chest, &c.—These diseases result from an accumulation in the chest of tough, thick mucus, and on the surface of the bronchial glands, Vesicles, thick mucus, which has appeared in the course after an inflammation. The tracheal artery is choked, no other part of the lungs can take place, breathing becomes impossible. Recommendations to get rid of this watery humor by the aid of expectorations, coughing, the latter is very painful, if the Elixir is not hastily called upon directly the poisonous effects of nature.

Apoplexy, Paralysis.—The brain is crumbs; by a great number of blood and lymphatic vessels; it is closed with a mucus membrane, which secretes a glairy humor, in order to keep that organ in a proper humidity. Let, through any means whatever, a slight but constant act on either the blood or lymphatic vessels, or the mucous membranes, and immediately the glairy humor becomes modified, abnormal then it should be, there follows an effusion of this very humor in the brain, and at once Apoplexy and Paralysis.

One only means exists to prevent such an accident, it is to use the Elixir before, during and after the effusion, to prevent it, and to operate a resorption by a powerful derivation on the intestinal tube, of the humor in the brain.

Dyspepsy, Nervousness, Yellow Fever, Jaundice, Indigestion, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Bilousness, Nervous Debility, &c.—When the liver has become the seat of a violent inflammation, this inflammation soon invades the spleen, the stomach and the intestines through the effusion of bile in these organs. A newly secreted infection develops itself, giving birth to Jaundice, Yellow Fever, Typhoid and Bilious Cholera, and other putrid intestinal diseases; bilious or typhoid are formed in the gall bladder, &c. To prevent these disorders, the bile, pent up by inflammation, must be expelled from the liver as fast as it is produced, and this is effected by the healing Elixir, prepared by Paul Gage, for this remedy promptly cools and calms that virulent, united to a mild purgative action.

Catarrh of the Bladder.—When urine is charged with a glairy matter, mucous, purulent and thick, sometimes as it were oily, this matter irritates the mucus of the bladder, and soon produces retention, which is followed by inflammation, and the Elixir, prepared by Paul Gage, and it will prevent the glairy matter from presenting or staying in the bladder.

Gout and Rheumatism.—These very grave diseases owe their origin to a glairy humor in the blood, which flows itself on the synovial membranes of the articulations, and on the aponeurose which coat the muscles. To dislodge the gravel, it is necessary to use the remedy: Gobbé's Elixir, prepared by Paul Gage, in the best agent which can be used to alleviate pain and effect a radical cure. As a general purgative, the Electro-magnetic Tincture can be applied.

For all other diseases, consult Dr. Guillie, or refer to the Treatise, from which what precedes is extracted. It is delivered gratis, with every bottle of Elixir, which must be held as counterfeit unless accompanied by it.

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC TISSUE, APPROVED BY THE ACADEMY OF MEDICINE.

This Tissue owes its curative virtue to the substance of which it is composed, and to the metals of the Voltaic Pile incorporated in it as an impalpable powder. In the medical category, it is the thermal apparel; it manifests itself by an abundant perspiration, and sometimes by a salutary derivative eruption.

This Tissue, composed of such a substance, will be indefinitely, and that its use is more economical and more effective than that of all chemical patents, most of which are but the result of a fraudulent combination.

Every medical paper published in Paris has recommended its use.

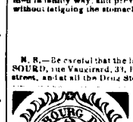
GRINDLE'S
ANCIENT AND CELEBRATED



JAPANESE LIFE PILLS.

NATURE'S OWN REMEDY.

A Positive Cure for Liver Complaint and Bilious Disorders, Dyspepsy, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, Fever and Ague, Cankerous, Dysentery and Diarrhœa, Worms, Suppression of the Menses, Nervous Debility, &c.

For a long time we have been compelled to witness the ravages of the many advertised and life destroying drugs made into pills and liquid medicines, and patients using them without knowing their injurious effects. The medical category of monstrous evil may now be entirely escaped by using only these ANCIENT JAPANESE LIFE PILLS and our MAGIC COMPOUND. For many years we have studied hard to find a cathartic which, while it purged, would throw out disease, and not more nervous misery; would remonish and strengthen, and not degrade and enervate the system.

We now unhesitatingly say that this so much sought for remedy—a cathartic of mild and pleasant operation, whose tendency is to purify our blood and not more secretions, thoroughly purifying the blood, and immediately strengthening the system—has been found. We call the attention of the afflicted to the following proofs, from which what precedes is extracted. It is delivered gratis, with every bottle of Elixir, which must be held as counterfeit unless accompanied by it.

Dr. Curtis, the neighboring counties, will regularly lend the rural department.

For terms, apply at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.

YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different Interiors, will be conveyed going to and from the institution.
