THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 19. THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from ONE PHASE OF THE COTTON QUESTION.

Cition is a theme of isechangible interest. Ere the seed is placed within the earth, speculation busies itself with conscitures as to the weather, and its influence on the anticipated green. When the plant shows itself above the surface, ten thousand vicinate year are wisching its growth, and looking to its careful nurture. The same untiring seal and patence attend its progress, from the unfolding of the tender bud to the complete development of the fleety captailes; guarding it from the sharp frost and withering heat; from rot and rost; from the lowern and caterpillar. When the gathering of the crop begins, every planter, every merchant, and simust every one class are auxions to learn its extent, to approximate its value, and to ascertain the probatel prices it will command. The article extern so largely into the consumption of the world, in the shape of fabrics weven for garmonts, that none other could possibly an
