constitution of the State.

The meconastency of these cavilers is indeed marveices. The Black Republicans, who will accept nothing save the Topeka Constitution pure and simple, pursue, indeed, an infloigible policy, but the Democratic prints, which recognized the power that authorized the election of the members of the Convention; which admitted the legality and legitimacy of that body, and have never deuted its sovereign authority to traine a Constitution and submit it or not, as might appear meet advisable, cained, without self-authorized which had been made within the last few days by a leading American house to the Black of England, for a large advance on securities, jurinshed from the first few days by a leading American house to the Black of England, for a large advance on securities, jurinshed from the first professions. The election of members of the Convention was held in virtue of a legistative exactment, acknowledged which and by the Private resources of the firm, has been authority which and being by the whole South, and by the Northern Permeracy. The Presediers thought proper to ignore the Convention, and to abstant from voting for delegates. early to a man, pro slavery. This Convention adopted a Constitution embracing a provision sanctioning slavery. It possessed full and undentable power to send its a Constitution to Congress, without taking the popular series on its ratincation; it had abundant precedent in favor of such a curse. Instead of this, however, deferring a mewhat to the channers of the free State party, it agreed to submit to the vote of the right of suffrage. On that day the lause is to be submitted to the per they not retuse to vote for members of Convention, under the pretext that the institution was the only one ald they have voted if the Lecompton venture by tagreed to submit to the perle the entre Constitution? It is an instructive illustration of the sincerity of the professions of nationality constantly uttered by the Morthern Democratic pournals. that the very moment the singhtest glimpse appears of the establishment of slavery in Kansas, one-half the pack open full mouthed against it; and no sooner does the Fresident, for the first time, exhibit a dispersition to treat the South with inatice than he is condemned and denounced by these same hypocritical shoets. They were still—including the Democratic presses of Philadelphia, Petroit, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Duthaque, Syringfield, and many other places—intensely patriotic and national as long at the state, and Brusanas as free State, and Brusanas as stree State, and Brusanas as street State, and Brusanas as s

patch from Chicago to the New York Times says:

Senator Douglas has left home for Washington. Be has talked with the utmost freedom upon political topics, and especially upon the Kansas question, with the many politicians who have sought his counsel. He asys openly and uniformly that he intends to stand by the principles of the Kansas Newborkska bill, and to insate on the right of the people to choose their own form of government, not only in the matter of slavery—for he says we have had four years of negroes, and we want some legislation for the interests of white men—there are other questions in that Constitution besides the issues of slavery, and they must be action by the people of kinds and the waste themselves.

If the Constitution made at the ompton is not the will of the people of the Territory, then he declares himself in favor of throwing that overboard, as the Topeka Constitution was upest, and referring back the whole subject of constitution making to the people the Nebraska-Kanasa bill. The President was elected by the people, on the pledge that the actual settlers stad be protected in their right to form their own. Constitution. Mr. Doughas has also expressed the opinion, from the statements in the public prints, that the pro-slavery men of Kanasa have attempted a fraud upon the people. He has also repudated with special emphases the doctrine recently set forth by the Washington Canasa, that the several States have no right to abultat that the several States have no right to abult accepting that peat, and of the absolute necessity of sentaning him.

Judge Douglast thinks that if the administration wish to have Walker austained May can effect it, but if they send he mame estemship to be approved, but really to be rejected, the Southern Senators will vote against him. He is more afraid of Sildell in this matter than of fluiter. He thinks wise has crushed out Hunter in his letter. Mr. Buchanan, he is arraid, will enderse the bogus Constitution. He is tired of Kanasa, and he will accept any mode of settlement that seems the speedlest.
