We are heartily tired and sick of the very name of "Kassas;" but que seeline over? It is the paramount national and political topic of the day. It arouses speculation, provokes discussion, inflames the passions of both sections of the Union, has an important bearing on the stability of our insultations, and therefore, though rehashed and revamped, and reiterated aren unto names, we cannot, as public journalists, avoid frequent recurrence to it. Our readers will consequently, we trust, be induspent, while, as health a possible, we lay before them the latest days opments in relation to this momentous than the study and treatment of Camp and Standard or the control of the profession.

Look at the announcement, and the manner and by the mandate of the Convention.

The notorious James H. Lang, as chairman of a committee of fifteen, reported a series of resolutions which were adopted by accismation. They are of a fiery and furious character—utterly denouncing and repudating the Lecompton Constitution, and pledging the lives, fortunes and honor of the delegates never to permit it to become the organic law of Kanasa; treating the elections of the 21st inst, and 4th January pext as a swinde, and a crime; recognizing the Legislature elected in October last as the only legitimate law-making body; reindorsing the Topeka Constitution, and memorializing the Topeka Constitution, and memorializing the Topeka Constitution, and memorializing the Topeka Constitutions.
