SIGNORINA VESTVALI'S FAREWELL CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—It will be seen by the programme in another column that the series of musical entertainments selected for Signorina Vestvali's grand benefit concert this evening are of the most attractive character, as well instrumental as vocal. Vestvali herself will sing a grand air from the Stabat Mater, the beautiful aria from Maria di Rohan, and the ever-pleasing drinking-song from Lucrezia Borgia. Miss Jennie McLean, the American contralto, will sing an English ballad. Signor Garibaldi, the celebrated basso profundo, M. Delaurays, the fine tenor, and Mr. Jonca, of the French Theatre, will likewise give their effective support on the occasion. The instrumental portions will be executed by Herr Beaur, the violoncellist, and Signor Maccri, the clarionet player, both of whom enjoy a high artistic reputation. The public may, therefore, anticipate a delightful soiree. Tickets can be procured at Ganci's, No. 91 Canal street, at Werlein's, No. 5 Camp street, and at the door of the Hall during the evening. For further details, see advertisement.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May

Senate.—Mr. Hamlin, of Me., defended the fisheries at length, maintaining that they were the most efficient schools for American seamen, who were thus prepared for the naval service. If they must be abolished, it ought to be done gradually. The nursery of seamen should be regarded in the same light as military and naval academies.

The Senate then went into executive session, and subsequently adjourned.

House.—The Legislative, Judicial and Executive Appropriation bill was passed.

Mr. Ritchie spoke against the resolution proposing the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. There was no shred from particular emergency which requires it. The treaty when made prevented a collision between Great Britain and the United States, and preserved peace. It was dictated by good sense and good feeling on both sides.— The practical difficulty between the two countries amounts to nothing. It arises merely from a technical interpretation of the treaty. He could see no reason for abrogation by the act of one party, or part of the United States to seize Central America.

Mr. Clingman said we ought to be free from that treaty. He would, however, say in case that territory we may ... it lawfully.

Mr. Ritchie—The abrogation would open a conflict for the possession of that country.—He was sorry that Mr. Clingman quoted the Garland Administration's opposition, as he (Mr. Ritchie) looked upon it as an evidence of covetousness and imbecility.

Mr. Kelsey moved to table the resolutions reported on Thursday from the Committee of Foreign Affairs proposing the abrogation of the treaty.

Negatived—47 against 107.

Mr. Sickles moved a postponement, but the House seconded the demand for the previous question, under which the resolution was ordered to be engrossed—97 against 86.

Without final action the House passed to the consideration of other business.

Mr. Haskin offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing an arrest, for contempt, of Robert W. Latham, in failing to appear before the committee to investigate the circumstances attending the purchase of Wilkinson's powder for fortification purposes.

The House resumed the consideration of the Senate bill for the admission of Minnesota into the Union.

Mr. Smith, of Va., made a speech against the Minnesota bill on account of the alien suffrage clause in the Constitution.

Messrs. Millson, Phillips and Bliss denied the right of Congress to interfere with the rights of the electors in the States. Adjourned.

Officials.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate:

Edward G. Lorisy, of Massachusetts, to be Judge of the Court of Claims, vice John J. Gilchrist, deceased.

Census.

The Pioneer of Assumption says:

On Friday last a severe storm occurred on the Lafourche, just below the village of Lafourche. At the time of the break about twenty-five feet of the levee gave way, but we are told that it has widened to forty feet, and that the rapid current which rushes through it is increasing the breach continually.

The Lafourche to-day rising slowly at this point, notwithstanding the existence of the crevasse, and it is incumbent on all to keep a strict watch on their levees.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—House.—The question of the admission of the Minnesota Representative was referred to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. Kunkle, from the Committee on Accounts, reported a resolution that B. B. Hackney, door-keeper to the House, be expelled from office for refusing to obey the orders of the committee, and for making false entries respecting documents folded, etc. The subject was postponed until Monday.

The Committee on Elections have reported in the Ohio case. They stand 4 in favor of Lewis D. Campbell, 4 in favor of Vallandingham, and 1 declares the seat vacant.

Mr. Clark made an adverse report to the admission of Utah into the Union. The remainder of the day was devoted to the Territorial bills.

Senate.—The Senate slightly amended and passed the General Appropriation bill.

The motion to reconsider came up, and, after a sharp debate of three hours on inserting a clause for the payment to John C. Rives, Esq., of the Congressional Globe, $3300 as compensation for the Senate reporters, the Senate adjourned without coming to any conclusion.

MARINE—BRITISH IMPUDENCE.

BOSTON, May 13.—The brig Robert Wing reports that she was boarded at Agua by a British cruiser, and that a schooner, in company with her, was forcibly detained on suspicion of being a slaver.

NEW SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, May 13.—Hon. A. P. Hayne has been appointed to succeed the late Senator Evans, of this State.

PORT AU PRINCE.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Advices from Port au Prince to the 3d inst. say that the port is besieged by a Dominican fleet.

The American sooner Wing of the Wind had been fired into for running the blockade. The few shots fired into the place had been returned from the shore.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Sales of Cotton, 3000 bales, at a decline of ¼ to ⅛c.; Uplands Middling, 12½c.—quoted generally nominal.—Flour, and from the Southern and Western, $4 11 to $4 25; Western red, 98c. to $1. Mess Pork, $17 50 to $17 56½. Lard, 11 to 11½c. Bacon—8½c. for long-ribbed middles, and 9¼ to 9¾c. for short-ribbed middles.—Whisky steady. Sugar—Orleans, 5¼ to 6¼c.; Muscovado, 5½c. Coffee, 10 to 11½c.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—Flour, $3 90 to $3 75. Bacon Sides, 8½c. Lard, 10½c. In Sugar there is more doing, but prices are easier. Linseed Oil, 64 to 65c.

MEXICO.

Through the kindness of a highly respected gentleman of New Orleans we have been put in possession of the annexed letter received by him from Don Benito Juarez, Constitutional President of Mexico, written on the 6th instant, just before the departure of the Tennessee. Although it does not add materially to our previous stock of information, it corroborates the impression derived from other accounts of the encouraging aspect of affairs for the Constitutional party:

VERA CRUZ, May 6th, 1858.

Dear Friend

On the 4th instant, at 7 o'clock, P. M., I arrived at Vera Cruz, with my friend Ocampo and my other traveling companions, without having experienced any unpleasant incident during our voyage. The troops which garrison the city and the Castle of Ulua, as well as the authorities and the people at large, are filled with the liveliest enthusiasm in behalf of the liberty and constitutional order of the republic. The soldiers commanded by Vidaurri have achieved a signal triumph over those of Miramon, who, owing to our misfortune at its entrance, is considered throughout the country. In short, the opinion is general and uniform that the clerico-military government of Zuloaga, in spite of the tremendous efforts it is making to sustain itself, will usually succumb. The question is simply one of time, but the triumph of the liberal party is inevitable.

Present my kind regards to my numerous friends in New Orleans, and believe me yours very sincerely,

BENITO JUAREZ.

Accompanying the letter is a copy of the Progreso, of Vera Cruz, containing an elaborate account of the brilliant reception given to Senor Juarez on his arrival at that city.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE EMPIRE CITY.

The steamer Empire City arrived yesterday afternoon. We are indebted to purser Dimmon for the following report:

The Empire City, Captain S. P. Griffin, left New York on the 3d instant, and entered the harbor of Havana at sunrise on the 10th, her passage having been prolonged by very heavy weather. Found in port the English steamer Clyde and steamers Isabel and Granada; transferred 398 passengers to the latter, received from her 98 passengers, the California mails and $46,500 in treasure, and left at 5 o'clock the same afternoon for New Orleans. The steamship Star of the West left Aspinwall on the 4th, at 4 P. M., for New York, with the California mails, 600 passengers and $1,600,000 in treasure.

Business at Havana is fair for the season, and the public health unusually good. Sugars tend lower. Exchange is quoted ¼ to 3 per cent. premium on New Orleans, 13 per cent. on London, and par on New York.

The English gun-boats, whose "cordon sanitaire" has encircled the ever faithful island, have extended their sphere of influence lately by entering the harbor of Sagua la Grande and subjecting all vessels at anchor there to rigorous search. This report, just arrived at Havana, was the immediate topic of conversation.

On the passage from New York to Havana Juan del Carmen Vesjel, a native of Peru, died of pneumonia on the 8th, and was buried at sea the same evening.

The Empire City saw steamship Black Warrior at 7 P. M. on the 13th, forty miles distant from the bar at Southwest Pass.

The following is a list of the passengers by the Empire City:

FROM NEW YORK.—Captain Woodman, Mrs Captain A Spear and two children, Mr de Vesor, S W Hymar, and fifteen steerage.

FROM HAVANA.—Augusto Brunchedich, V de Castro, R de Sosa and family, Charles Terry, and seven steerage.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—Mrs M J Sloane, F Fray, J J Wood, wife and two infants, C Sellmann, Dr W G Williams, Mrs Johnson, child and infant, J D Davis, L W Tolcamt, Mrs A Belle, F A Haines, J H Washington, J C Washington, 20 in the steerage, and two infants, L H Brown, wife and infant, C H Babcock, Mrs Mary Ireland, J Ireland, D Woods, wife a d infant, Captain Waterman, and fifty-seven steerage.

PASSED ASPINWALL.—Captain Allen McLean, lady and servant.

Our files of California papers are to the 20th April. We condense from the Alta California the annexed

SUMMARY OF THE FORTNIGHT'S NEWS.

State.

The Legislature will adjourn on the 26th inst. The Sunday law has been adopted by both branches of the Legislature, and has been approved by the Governor. It will go into force on the 1st of June. It forbids the keeping open of any house for business purposes on Sunday, except hotels, restaurants, livery stables and drug stores; and it forbids the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, save fresh meat, fish or milk, which shall not be sold after 10 A. M.

An act authorizes the Legislature to furnish arms and accoutrements to the students of colleges, that they may all learn something of military affairs.

There was a great fire in Forest City on the night of the 10th inst. The town was almost entirely destroyed. The total loss is put down at $175,000.

The Sierra Citizen reports the discovery, near Downieville, of a large amount of beautiful blue-black marble, susceptible of polish, and susceptible of a high polish. Some of it contains gold, if the statement of the Citizen be correct.

A lot of one hundred unbroken Californian horses were sold in Sacramento city a week ago at $223 apiece. They were two and three years old.

The Indians in the Coast Mountains west of Red Bluffs continue hostile to the whites. A party of Indians, under the charge of Mr. Hobby, on the 6th inst., and he narrowly escaped with his life. Gen. Clark has sent some troops to the vicinity to watch the red skins.

There was a great fight between two opposing companies of Chinamen at Weaverville, on the 4th inst. Several were wounded, and one will probably die.

On the 10th inst., John Galvin, convicted of the murder of Jacob Bibby, was hanged in Marysville; and on the same day three Chinamen, convicted of the murder of M. V. B. Brinvold, were hanged in Jackson. Gal vin admitted his guilt, and one of the Chinamen confessed that he and his brother convicts were justly condemned.

A party of aquatters, week before last, drove a U. S. Surveyor from his work in surveying a rancho near Healdsburg. They destroyed his field notes, and ordered him to leave the rancho, under pain of being shot dead. They then hunted up one of the owners of the rancho, and compelled him to sign a paper abandoning all claim to the land.

City.

Some forty passengers, to go by the overland route from San Diego to San Antonio, Texas, sailed on the 3d of April, for San Diego, in the steamer Senator. These men refused to pay the arbitrary prices of passage demanded by the mail company.

On the 7th of April a solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the church of Notre Dame des Victoires, on Bush street, for the repose of the soul of Henry A. Crabb, and his companions, who were massacred one year previous, at Caborca, Sonora. The ceremonies were performed at the instance of the wife of Mr. Crabb.

Robert R. Woods, Esq., late Treasurer of San Francisco county, died suddenly at his room, in the El Dorado building, on the evening of the 7th April. He was buried on the following day by the fraternity of Free Masons, of which he was a Knight Templar.

Mrs. Cora Ann Wilkes, the newly arrived editress of the Alta steamer, a weekly literary newspaper lately started here under her auspices, took flight with her husband, under the assumed names of "Mr. and Mrs. Percival," on the 14th of April, for Australia, in the bark Glimpse, taking with her some $1500 which the newspaper had received from subscribers, and leaving several hundred dollars of debts. The affair has created no small flutter in literary circles.

The case of the slave Archy Lee was finally disposed of on the 14th of April by the opinion delivered by Commissioner George Pen Johnson, in the United States District Court, setting him at liberty, and constituting him a free man. The announcement gave general satisfaction. On the following evening the boy made his appearance at the Zion (colored) Church, on Pacific street, and was enthusiastically received by his friends.

Oregon.

The Republican State Convention met at Salem on the 3d inst., and nominated the following State ticket:

For Governor—John Denny.

For Representative in Congress—J. R. McCracken.

For Secretary of State—Leander Holmes.

For State Printer—D. W. Craig.

For State Treasurer—E. E. Applegate.

Portland held its municipal election on the 5th inst. The anti-Salem faction of the Democratic party carried the day.

The organs of the Salem and the anti-Salem factions are very bitter against each other; but no important principles separate the two factions, they will probably unite again at no distant day.

The news from the mines near Fort Colville is very favorable.

The small-pox is said to be raging among the Flathead and Nez Pazoes Indians, hundreds of each tribe having died of it.

Washington Territory.

A great excitement prevails about the mines on Thompson's river, a branch of Fraser's river, in British America.

The Gandara party has been defeated in battle, and Don Jesus Gandara killed. The Yaqui Indians, who were among the stoutest partisans of the two aristocrats, have committed great atrocities, having burned the church at Santa Cruz, with some 25 or 30 persons, who took refuge in it. Gov. Pesqueira has sent a large number of troops to the Yaqui river to chastise the Indians, and if successful, he will establish a colony of whites in their midst.

Thomas P. Lewis, master of the ship Adelaide, loading guano at Ride Island, off the coast of Lower California, was killed there on the 12th ult. by Wm. Williams, colored cook of that vessel. Three other vessels happened to be there at the time, and the officers united to hold a court, taking six sailors as part of the jury, and tried Williams, convicted him of murder, and then hanged him on the island.

Sandwich Islands.

We have news from Honolulu to March 27th.

It is said that D. L. Gregg, Esq., will probably be appointed Minister of Finance as soon as Judge Belden, his successor to the post of United States Commissioner, shall arrive.

A new treaty with France has been signed. Its text has not been published, but its chief point is said to be that the duty on brandy is reduced from $5 to $3 per gallon. France has been long working to get this reduction, and perhaps it will now come too late, for the grape brandy of California will be a dangerous, and probably a successful, rival of the cognac.

Panama.

Our Panama papers are to the 3d instant. The Star and Herald has the following:

On Thursday night, as the steamer Granada was making the port of Aspinwall, when about forty miles distant, she came in contact with the schooner Emily, which left the port about half-past six the same evening. The schooner immediately capsized and sunk, the crew and passengers having scarcely time to leave her. The steamer suffered no injury. The Emily was one of the fastest vessels sailing out of the port of Aspinwall, and was engaged in the Jamaica trade.

South Pacific.

From Chili the only news is that the election have been carried by the government, amidst much excitement.

From Bolivia and Peru the intelligence is without any interest.

Cuba.

Our dates from Havana are to the 8th instant. The Royal Lottery was drawn on the 6th instant. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 4,466, $250,000; No. 6,675, $60,000; No. 21,272, $30,000; No. 9,921, $20,000; No. 7,408, $6,000; No. 3,714, 7,122, 10,215, 18,725—each $1,000; Nos. 6,549, 9,484, 9,514, 13,075, 16,101—each $1,000.

The papers contain no local intelligence of particular interest.

ADDITIONAL FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

THE ACQUITTAL OF SIMON BERNARD.

[From the London Times, April 19.]

Immediately at the conclusion of the summing up, and before the jury had retired, the prisoner, with much warmth of tone, vehemence of gesture, and rapidity of utterance, addressed the court. He declared that the words which have been spoken or quoted by the Judge with reference to the bails are not correct, and that the bails which were taken on by Giorgi to Brussels were not those which were used in Paris. I have brought no evidence here, because I am not accustomed to compromise any person. I declare that I am not a hirer of assassins, and that Rudio, as he stated on his trial in Paris, himself asked to be sent to Orsini. I declare that I have not hired assassins, and that of the blood of the victims of the 14th of January there was nothing in my heart more than in that of any one here. My only wish is to crush despotism and tyranny everywhere, because it is my duty, my sacred duty, and the duty of every lover of liberty to do so. But never, never, will I be a murderer.

At the close of this address, so unlike any thing one is accustomed to hear in a criminal court in this country, the jury retired to consider their verdict, it being then twenty minutes to 5 o'clock. It had been absent upwards of half an hour, when the intimation was given that they had agreed upon their verdict. Instantly silence was restored, the prisoner was placed in the dock, and the audience waited with breathless interest the announcement which was to decide his fate. After a few moments of anxious suspense, however, it transpired that the jury had not agreed, but that the mistake had arisen probably from their sending some communication to the Judges, and the prisoner was again removed from the dock. Then there was another long interval, during which the anxiety of the crowd seemed to deepen as the time wore on. The spectacle which the Court then presented was of the most animated and exciting description.

The small gallery immediately over the dock, and accessible only to the general public, was decently packed. In front of it sat several well dressed ladies, who had been unable to procure more agreeable accommodation than the hard benches in the body of the court, setting him at liberty, and constituting him a free man. The announcement gave general satisfaction. On the following evening the boy made his appearance at the Zion (colored) Church, on Pacific street, and was enthusiastically received by his friends.

The Yaqui Indians, who were among the stoutest partisans of the two aristocrats, have committed great atrocities, having burned the church at Santa Cruz, with some 25 or 30 persons, who took refuge in it. Gov. Pesqueira has sent a large number of troops to the Yaqui river to chastise the Indians, and if successful, he will establish a colony of whites in their midst.

Thomas P. Lewis, master of the ship Adelaide, loading guano at Ride Island, off the coast of Lower California, was killed there on the 12th ult. by Wm. Williams, colored cook of that vessel. Three other vessels happened to be there at the time, and the officers united to hold a court, taking six sailors as part of the jury, and tried Williams, convicted him of murder, and then hanged him on the island.

Sandwich Islands.

We have news from Honolulu to March 27th.

It is said that D. L. Gregg, Esq., will probably be appointed Minister of Finance as soon as Judge Belden, his successor to the post of United States Commissioner, shall arrive.

A new treaty with France has been signed. Its text has not been published, but its chief point is said to be that the duty on brandy is reduced from $5 to $3 per gallon. France has been long working to get this reduction, and perhaps it will now come too late, for the grape brandy of California will be a dangerous, and probably a successful, rival of the cognac.

Panama.

Our Panama papers are to the 3d instant. The Star and Herald has the following:

On Thursday night, as the steamer Granada was making the port of Aspinwall, when about forty miles distant, she came in contact with the schooner Emily, which left the port about half-past six the same evening. The schooner immediately capsized and sunk, the crew and passengers having scarcely time to leave her. The steamer suffered no injury. The Emily was one of the fastest vessels sailing out of the port of Aspinwall, and was engaged in the Jamaica trade.

South Pacific.

From Chili the only news is that the elections have been carried by the government, amidst much excitement.

From Bolivia and Peru the intelligence is without any interest.

Cuba.

Our dates from Havana are to the 8th instant. The Royal Lottery was drawn on the 6th instant. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 4,466, $250,000; No. 6,675, $60,000; No. 21,272, $30,000; No. 9,921, $20,000; No. 7,408, $6,000; No. 3,714, 7,122, 10,215, 18,725—each $1,000; Nos. 6,549, 9,484, 9,514, 13,075, 16,101—each $1,000.

The papers contain no local intelligence of particular interest.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

REV. DR. SCOTT'S LECTURE.—The lecture of this distinguished divine at „Odd Fellows' Hall, last evening, for the benefit of the "Relief Association of the Young Men's Christian Association, was well attended. The subject of discourse, "The Responsibility of Young Men to Society" was admirably elucidated, and must exert the most happy influences upon those present, for whom it was particularly intended. The aggregation and segregation of moral and physical causes, and their relations to their fellow beings upon each other seemed to constitute the thread of the speaker's address, in the course of which he paid a very marked compliment to the newspaper press of America. The speaker was at times very eloquent, and the lecture, though long, was characterized throughout with such novelty and variety of imagery, and such earnestness of expression, as caused it to be listened to with the deepest attention.

HOUSE ECCLESIASTICAL PROPOSITION.—In the course of the proceedings yesterday of the Presbyterian General Assembly now convened in this city, Rev. Dr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, made a proposition to the Assembly for the preparation and eventual publication of a "Presbyterian Commentary upon the Bible"—the work of preparing which is to be distributed among the various Synods of the Union, and to be concluded at the end of twenty years. The Assembly adjourned over till Monday next, on the subject, which will be resumed this morning.

DEATH OF MRS. SEYMOUR.—We regret to have heard, last evening, of the death of Mrs. Seymour, wife of our worthy cotemporary, Isaac G. Seymour, of the Bulletin. The friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from Christ Church, Canal street.

THE MAGIC RESERVE.—The Amphitheatre was crowded to its utmost capacity last night, on the occasion of the farewell benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh. The little "Juvenile," we thought, played the "Brigand" with more than usual success. The "free list" for the first time at the Amphitheatre was suspended.

CHILD LOST.—Mr. Isaah English, of the steamer Belle Gates, informs us that his little son Robert, aged about 19 years, strayed from his residence corner of Dauphin and St. Ann streets, and that he has not heard from him since Saturday last. He would properly appreciate any information of his whereabouts. The boy speaks both French and English, and may possibly give some other name than his own. Any one harboring him must expect to abide the legal consequences, should such fact be determined.

YANKOUSKI'S MUSEUM, No. 107 St. Charles street, continues to be visited freely by the lovers of what is chaste and beautiful in the fine arts. The Museum is a fixture of New Orleans, and its numerous objects of attraction, so many fixities in the hearts of admirers. See the advertisement, and give Yankouski a call when convenient.

THE VOLUNTEER.—As may be seen by an announcement in another column, our German friends will resume the festivities of the season on the 16th and 17th inst., (next Sunday and Monday) at the Union Race Course.

DEATH-DEALER.—Yesterday morning, as early as 4 o'clock, Victor Gandon, a youth of this city, whose many suppose to be insane, attacked his father, Pierre Auguste Gandon, with a pair of scissors, at his residence corner of Broad and St. Philip streets, and stabbed him some sixteen times, till he died from the effects of the wound. He then turned to and death upon a poor unconscious lamp-lighter, Joseph Hammer, who was engaged in putting out the lamps of the streets, and stabbed him some six or eight times so very dangerously that he was taken to the Charity Hospital in apparently a very low condition. Young Gandon, who is about 18 years of age, was soon arrested, and the Coroner was called to make the usual investigations in the matter. The affair has created the most intense excitement.

SUICIDE.—The inquest on the body of Sam'l G. Rain was yesterday protracted. Mr. Rain was a native of Virginia, 52 years of age, a ship-carpenter by trade, and, as reported by the friends who were present at the death bed of Mrs. Hamilton, on which occasion he had been boarding about a fortnight, had been very much depressed in mind, which was found to be the cause of his suicide. He is a certain named Jean and woman with having given information to the Coroner's investigation led to the positive conviction that he was insane, and had taken opium for his own destruction, the powder which he secured, and who were promptly arrested, and discharged. He had previously attempted to commit suicide in the same way, drinking himself out like a corpse.

THE GRAND GERMAN VOLKSFEST will be continued and concluded on SUNDAY, the 16th, and MONDAY, the 17th May, 1858. The proceeds will be devoted as follows, A. B., on Canal street, present Orleans St. Charles avenue, Poydras to Canal, Chartres, St. Louis to Royal, and through Bayou to Shooting Gallery. The Union Guard, where, after a short rest, the following festivities and sports will take place:

Ball and Target Shooting, Gymnastical Exercises, mass and dual-rowing Boat-Running, Footballs, Sports on Horseback, on which songs composed by the eight Singers, under the direction of Mr. L. F. Bond.

Every six musicians will assemble and play every evening an old concrete concert and dancing time on the ground.

Admission for gentlemen, 25 cents; ladies and children free.

Mr. J. B. Stevens & Co.'s Bayou Boat conference will run all day to each place mentioned as above, every day during the regular fare.

Judge COLLINS will be the orator of the day.

Our invited guests and the press are solicited to give us the honor of their presence.

The orphans of all sayings may favor us, with their visitors, on Monday, at the day.

All private carriages may stop on the race track and public conveyance may stop on Gentilly road before the Course. JOHN KATZENAUER, President. JOHN KRAMER, Secretary.

ANTI-GOUTY ELIXIR

OF

HIPPOLYTE BRIHUGNE,

INVENTOR OF THE ANTI-RHEUMATISMAL

Tropical Balm.

THIS new all medical science has had no power over made so many victims all over the earth, and still more daily so many thousands from their seats of comfort and ease, as the dreadful malady called gout. It is useless to recall to our minds the symptoms of the disease too well known to its numerous sufferers. Suffice it to say that the Anti-Gouty Elixir of Hippolyte Brihugne is a certain remedy against their attacks. Such is the effect of the Anti-Gouty Elixir, that in the search of the laborious searches of M. Brihugne, already known by the discovery of the Anti-Rheumatismal Tropical Balm, has succeeded in bringing down to the day so great a success. The Anti-Gouty Elixir, purely designed for curing the gout, is the result of twenty years of study and experience of the most eminent physicians of the world, and by repeated always upon its remedy triumphant victims.

The ANTI-GOUTY ELIXIR is easy to take, and its taste is in no way disagreeable. It may be administered with ease to three spoonfuls at one or more times a day, according to the circumstances, and whatever may be the intemperance of the ill. In twelve hours from the sufferings disappear, and all its symptoms vanish to return no more.

For sale at the general depot, in New Orleans, at 83 Chartres street, by J. WRIGHT & CO., 21 and 181 Chartres st.

Save Your Doctor Bills and Time.

MT. PLEASANT, MD., July 7, 1856.

Dear Sir:—In consequence of taking cold after a bad attack of the measles, some eleven years since, I have from that time suffered greatly with a disease of the nose and throat. I have been told by one and another that my life was despaired of. I was induced some time ago, through the persuasion of a friend, to call on Dr. Hay, who lives in the north of Baltimore, and who is a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. He has been in practice for the last twenty years, and has been highly successful in his profession. I am happy to say that I am entirely restored to health,
