

THE DAILY BEE. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 14. The election which took place in Washington on the 11th resulted in the choice of Mr. McKinley as President and Mr. Roosevelt as Vice-President.

By Telegraph. CAIRO WASHED AWAY. Epitaph of the Panoply. The destruction of Cairo, N. Y., by a landslide, is a tragedy of unparalleled magnitude. The city, which was one of the most important of the Empire State, was completely obliterated by the sliding of a massive wall of earth.

Advertisement for ANTEPHLIC MILK, featuring text such as 'The only antiseptic milk ever made' and '300 YEARS OF HISTORY'. The ad includes details about the product's benefits for infants and its long-standing reputation.