POLITICAL SUICIDE.

As an outsider we have perhaps no right to interfere in the feuds of the now inharmonious Democracy; but our independent position enables us to view these unpleasant wranglings with a clear and impartial eye, and this gives us some advantage over the disputants themselves. We fancy it will be conceded that at this particular juncture a perfect union and concord are indispensable to Democratic success. Whether President BUCHANAN was right or wrong in insisting on the Lecompton test; whether Senator DOUGLAS was a traitor or a patriot in separating from the administration on this issue, are questions which it would be at once tedious and imprudent to meet. For better or for worse, safety of the grand political organization at present leading power, that by gones should be by gones, and that forgetting past discussions, and overlooking minor differences, they should all combine to resist, and if possible overthrow a dangerous, formidable and common enemy.

But if ever Democracy were stricken with rash and mad blindness it is now. Just at the most critical period of its career, it permits false issues to distract and demoralize it. Note the remarkable, the wonderful stupidity with which its organs—or rather its leading organ, the New-York Union—treat Mr. DOUGLAS. This astute and astute politician being sincerely attached to the Democratic party, and extremely reluctant to sever his associations with it, has, in the course of the canvass now in progress in Illinois, taken frequent occasion to uphold and defend the cardinal principles of Democracy, to acknowledge himself a Democrat, and to express his profound sympathies with that party, and the even while reasserting those doctrines of popular sovereignty in accordance with which he shaped his course in the Senate on the Lecompton bill. Every man with a spark of intellect would have imagined that the administration would eagerly accept the olive-branch tendered by DOUGLAS, and rejoice at numbering him once more among its earnest supporters. Considerations of policy, if not of friendship, clearly dictated the necessity of a thorough reconciliation. Mr. DOUGLAS is a man whom the Democracy cannot afford to drive into opposition. He is too powerful and influential throughout the West to be forced into active enmity. The Democracy, already hard pushed by the legions of Black Republicanism, and in imminent danger of losing its ascendancy in the non-slaveholding States it had contrived to secure in 1856, might be certain of an overwhelming defeat with Senator DOUGLAS arrayed against it. Yet it was hardly to be credited that the Washington Union with a full consciousness of the weight of these arguments, is guilty of the unutterable folly of denouncing DOUGLAS. The President's organ, which is distinguished—if for nothing else—by a plentiful lack of judgment, may be day, in ponderous leaders, assail Judge DOUGLAS and his friends as Free-soilers, and in the issue of the number of the 20th even go so far as to class Judges DOUGLAS with those who profess allegiance to the Democratic organization, and claim fellowship with the party they are stabbing to the heart. Overlooking the evident desire of the Union to maintain amicable relations with the Democracy, it has proceeded to denounce the Democratic candidates for the Legislature as the tendency of this idiotic policy must be to alienate from the administration Mr. DOUGLAS himself, and seven-eighths of the Democracy of Illinois, since it is indubitable that he carries with him the bulk of the party in that State. The defection of so large a body would amply extend to the opposition all the States affords the utmost aid and comfort to the Black Republicans, probably securing them an easy victory. The anti-Lecompton Democrats of Pennsylvania, who manifest their difference with the President on the Kansas question, are warmly supporting the State Democratic ticket, will be disconcerted and disheartened by it; the result may be that the October elections will throw the Keystone State into the hands of the Abolitionists. If these dire disasters to the Democracy are averted, it will be in the face of the Washington Union, and the escape of the Democracy will be due to the sagacity and forbearance of leaders exceeding indifference which the people regard the outpourings of that very foolish sheet.

We are very desirous to know whether Mr. BUCHANAN sanctions the suicidal course of his organ in Europe. The old gentleman himself has been too sharp a politician not to foresee the consequences of the present policy of the Union. Years of years is dimming his perception and dulling his faculties, and he suffers the sycophants and parasites who surround him to lead him to the top of his bent.

MASS AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.—We had the pleasure of being present yesterday morning at the celebration of High Mass in St. Patrick's Church. The music was arranged expressly for the occasion by Mr. CURTO, a well known and popular citizen of this city, and was performed under his leadership in a very effective and masterly manner. The work is of an unusually high order of merit, and we are sure, add greatly to Mr. CURTO's reputation as a distinguished writer of sacred and secular music. Those who listened to the performance highly delighted with it, and we heard several connoisseurs express the opinion that the work in question is the finest that Mr. CURTO has yet given to the public.

In the farce, termed an investigation, which followed the frightful calamity on the Erie Railroad, the coroner's jury discovered that nobody was to blame. Exactly! This comfortable conclusion releases conductor, brakesmen, stokers, directors and every body else from the slightest apprehension of responsibility, and casts the responsibility upon destruction of Providence. What a safety-valve this principle is for the commonweight of sheer and wanton ignorance of railway officials, and how capitally do coroners' inquests shield guilt and rascality from the severest punishment! We see nothing to prevent being complete, look out for the next smash. Never mind if it kills half a dozen and wounds half a hundred. Nobody were responsible.

NEW CITIES.—The steamship MEXICO, from Indianola and Galveston, brought two bales cotton each section, one of which is from the plantation of W. H. KIRKLAND, Esq., in Wharton county, Texas, and is assigned to TARLTON, WHITING & TAYLOR; the other is from the plantation of Judge A. M. CAMPBELL, of Columbus, Colorado county, Texas, and consigned to S. DE VISMES & CO.

SUGAR.—The steamship Gen. RUSK arrived on Saturday from Brazos Santiago, with 11 hhds. in specie, to sundry consignees.

The steamship MEXICO arrived yesterday from Indianola and Galveston, with $25,000 in specie, consigned to Messrs. Perkins & Co.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—Baron GEROLT, the Prussian Minister to the United States, having received permission of absence from this country, will leave for Europe in the course of a few days, for his family, with whom he will return in the autumn.

Mr. SHERDELL, the successor recently appointed by the Belgian government to succeed M. de leach SPENCER, who was appointed Minister to Turkey, has since been named Minister to Sardinia, and it is not improbable that the arrangement may retain M. SPENCER in this country.

HOMICIDE.—A letter to the Montgomery Mail, dated 10th instant, relates a distressing occurrence at Greenwood, in that county. Jerom ah Hodge and John S. Rutland met in the back room of the store of Mr. MILLER, in the village of Greenwood, about dusk on Tuesday, 6th instant, and but few words were spoken until pistols were drawn and fired in rapid succession, which resulted in the immediate death of Mr. Hodge, and the severest wounding of Mr. Rutland.

MELANCHOLY CASUALTY.—On the 12th, a collision occurred between a light four-oared boat of the Yale navy and a Springfield club boat, eight oars, while practicing on the river, by which the former was capsized, and one of her crew, named George E. Dunham, a junior of Yale College, was drowned. His body has been recovered. Mr. Dunham was a son of Austin Dunham, of the firm of E. N. Kellogg & Co., wool dealers of Hartford, Conn.

TEXAS.

By the steamship MEXICO we have received Texas papers to the 22d instant. We copy the following from our exchanges. The Galveston News says:

We have had frequent complaints of late of the loss of valuable letters on several of the eastern mail routes. We ourselves witnessed a pretty strong case on Sunday last, in the case of Mr. Wm. Brightmore, to whom a letter was handed to Major Dalton, from his son, the editor of the Crockett Prairie. The letter purported to contain a ten dollar gold piece, and the mark of the piece was plainly seen on the letter, but the piece itself was gone. On further examination it was plainly seen that the letter had been broken open. The letter came by the Liberty mail, and this is all we know about it.

The Anderson Texian has been informed that one gallon of the expressed juice of the Louisiana sugar cane will yield upon an average, one quart of finely flavored syrup.

The Dallas Herald learns "that Gov. Runnels is of opinion that the Southern Pacific road has forfeited its charter, and has directed the Attorney-General to bring suit against the company to enforce the forfeiture. The proper grounds upon which the forfeiture is claimed we do not know, but learn that it is a failure to make some report or exhibit required by law."

The Nueces Valley informs us that Mr. W. S. Gregory, of Rancho Laureles, in that county, has a pair of greyhounds, one of which has taken nine of January last, 1858, fifty-three deer, (forty-seven bucks and five does,) twenty-one prairie wolves, and one black wolf; besides hare and other small game without number.

The Valley learns that a large female panther has been captured by hounds, and killed by the Nueces Cow Boys, a short time since.

Wm. Brightmore, alias Spunkey, a noted thief, while being conveyed to the State prison at Charlestown, to serve out a sentence of seven years, jumped from the vehicle and ran, falling through a railroad track fifteen feet into the water. As he came up Warden Paynes presented a pistol, when Brightmore yielded.

DISTRACTIVE FIRE AT LEAVENWORTH.—Loss, $100,000.—Leavenworth, July 5.—(Via Boonville, July 17.)—A fire broke out about midnight on the 14th, which at one time threatened the destruction of the densest portion of the city. It originated in the green room of the Union Theatre, at the corner of Third and Delaware streets, and rapidly communicated to the adjoining buildings, thirty of which, principally included in the block bounded by Cherokee, Shawnee, Second and Third streets, were reduced to ashes. The loss is believed to be under-estimated at $100,000, on which there was only a trifling insurance.

There is no apparatus or fire organization in the city, but the conflagration was providentially arrested by a lull of winds and a copious shower of rain. A general panic was manifested at the breaking out of the fire, but the citizens afterwards worked energetically, and the fire was finally mastered about 3 o'clock.

They will leave with reinforcements from New York.

FROM THE BOSTON COURIER OF SATURDAY.]

Important from the Atlantic Cable Fleet.

Two Unsuccessful Attempts to Lay the Wire—A Third Experiment to be Made.

The ship Alice Munroe, Captain Coming, from Liverpool June 12th, arrived at the Boston quarantine yesterday afternoon, with important intelligence from the Atlantic telegraph fleet. She fell in with two of the ships in mid-ocean on Sunday, June 27th, and learned from the lieutenant of the Niagara, and Mr. Cyrus W. Field, who was on board his ship, that two unsuccessful attempts had been made to submerge the cable; and that the fleet were about to enter upon a third experiment. We give Capt. Coming's report as follows:

"At 8 A.M., Sunday, June 27th, lat. 52.06 N., long. 33.15 W.; wind west, light; weather hazy; saw two ships heading to the eastward; on looking with a glass, found them to be the United States steam frigate Niagara, and H. B. M. steamship Gorgon, of the telegraphic squadron, and as they were lying still, I at once backed sail and stood towards them. At 11 A. M., was boarded by Cyrus W. Field, Esq., and a lieutenant from the Niagara, from whom we received a letter-bag, and the following communication:

MR. FIELD'S COMMUNICATION.

"The squadron had experienced bad weather since leaving Plymouth, and sixteen days reaching their destination; that they had made two unsuccessful attempts to lay the cable. On the 29th May they made the second attempt, they succeeded in laying upwards of 40 miles, and were going along finely, when the coment machine suddenly gave out, and in about twenty minutes; and all was going on well till about forty miles had been paid out when the cable parted on board the Niagara, as discovered that the current was broken. This was at half-past 12 A. M. of the 27th. The Niagara was immediately hove to, and the Gorgon shortly reached the mid-ocean rendezvous, at eight o'clock, when first seen by the Alice Munroe.

It was believed on board the Niagara that the cause of the second breaking was a kink in the Agamemnon's wire, caused by the arrangement during the gale; but of this there is no certainty. Nothing was said to Mr. Richards about the working of the new "brakes;" probably there had been no occasion to put them in use.

Mr. Field would not conceal his evident down-heartedness; he certainly had occasion for much forebodings. The theory that June is the most propitious month for the success of the enterprise is entirely destroyed; the vaunting boast of the London Times as to the superior capacities of the Agamemnon was put to rest by the narrow escape of that vessel from going to pieces without the aid of rocks or icebergs; and the two breakings of the wire at the very beginning of the trial —these were certainly enough to dismay the stoutest confidence.

The Alice Munroe parted from the company of the Niagara shortly after noon of the 27th, and lost sight of her about four o'clock. The squadron were then homeward in sight. The Niagara had hoped that her consort would arrive in season to make another trial that day; but the weather was foggy, though calm, it is hardly probable that any thing was done on the 27th. For two days subsequently the weather was quite calm and favorable, but after that there was another succession of heavy southerly gales, and the weather on the Banks, as experienced by the Alice Munroe, was exceedingly rough.

Such is the account procured by our reporter from Mr. Richards, mate of the Alice Munroe.

HOW THE SUN CAUGHT A THIEF IN THE ACT.—Five or six days ago, says a late Paris paper, M. Z——, a photographer, allured by the brightness of the sun, which, after the pouring of a fair, provided himself with necessary baggage and hastened to Fontainebleau, to take views in the forest. He had not gone half a dozen paces, when, at the corner of the Cheval Blanc, he perceived a quadrangular object, erected his apparatus, prepared his plates, opened his object glass, and enveloping it in a very dollar gold piece, and the mark of the piece was plainly seen on the letter, but the piece itself was gone. On further examination it was plainly seen that the letter had been broken open. The letter came by the Liberty mail, and this is all we know about it.

The Anderson Texian has been informed that one gallon of the expressed juice of the Louisiana sugar cane will yield upon an average, one quart of finely flavored syrup.

The Dallas Herald learns "that Gov. Runnels is of opinion that the Southern Pacific road has forfeited its charter, and has directed the Attorney-General to bring suit against the company to enforce the forfeiture. The proper grounds upon which the forfeiture is claimed we do not know, but learn that it is a failure to make some report or exhibit required by law."

The Nueces Valley informs us that Mr. W. S. Gregory, of Rancho Laureles, in that county, has a pair of greyhounds, one of which has taken nine of January last, 1858, fifty-three deer, (forty-seven bucks and five does,) twenty-one prairie wolves, and one black wolf; besides hare and other small game without number.

The Valley learns that a large female panther has been captured by hounds, and killed by the Nueces Cow Boys, a short time since.

Wm. Brightmore, alias Spunkey, a noted thief, while being conveyed to the State prison at Charlestown, to serve out a sentence of seven years, jumped from the vehicle and ran, falling through a railroad track fifteen feet into the water. As he came up Warden Paynes presented a pistol, when Brightmore yielded.

DISTRACTIVE FIRE AT LEAVENWORTH.—Loss, $100,000.—Leavenworth, July 5.—(Via Boonville, July 17.)—A fire broke out about midnight on the 14th, which at one time threatened the destruction of the densest portion of the city. They will leave with reinforcements from New York.

A RUN OF BUSINESS BRAINS DESTROYED.—Schenectady, July 17.—A son of Professor Emerson, of Union College, aged about seventeen years, who drowned last evening, about half-past seven o'clock, in the Mohawk River above. He was out in a skiff with a companion, when he fell overboard and was drowned. His body was recovered soon after.

From Northern Mexico.

By the arrival of the steamer Gen. Rusk we have received Brownsville papers to the 21st instant. They contain the annexed intelligence from Mexico, which, as will be seen, is highly favorable to the cause of the Constitutionalists:

MATAMORAS.—Col. Guadalupe Garcia, last week, left Monterey with troops to reinforce the Tamaulipas division now in the field. We learn that it is the intention of the commanders of the troops of all the frontier States to unite their forces, and together march upon the capital. Governor Garza, it is said, will also leave Matamoras in a few days. The greatest enthusiasm prevails in the ranks of the liberal party from its recent successes, and the confidence thus instilled into the rank and file of its army is equivalent to another victory. There is no stimulant to deeds of heroism like that of conscious superiority.

LATTER FROM MATAMORAS.—We learn that Gov. Garza left yesterday for Victoria.

A rumor was in circulation on the 19th that President Comonfort abandoned the city of Mexico and left the government in the hands of Cauto, one of his subordinates. It was also reported that he had gone to have some from Monterey by private letter.

The following is from the Flag of the 14th: The ship Alice Munroe, Saturday last, brought files of the Boletin Official from the latter place, which announces the final capture of the long contested city of New Leon Potosi by the forces under Col. Zuazua. The fact is announced in an official dispatch from Col. Zuazua to Gov. Vidaurri, dated from headquarters in the village of Santiago, on the 30th ult., as follows:

"Excellent Sir—Yesterday, at ten in the morning, the enemy commenced to evacuate the city of Monterey, and by a single bottle of Professor De Grath's Electric Oil. Blue columns could be heard 300 yards from the house, and not a nerve pain, on Sunday; the following Monday she was sailed and walked about town.

The Ladies! The Ladies! The Ladies!

It is a well established fact, that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or to use their own expression, "never feel well." Debility, a dread of all energy, extremely nervous and have no appetite. To this class of invalids, the Boofland German Bitters are specially recommended. Their peculiar tonic and invigorating properties restore them invariable in such cases.

READ THE TESTIMONY.

F. M. Chalfant says:

MORGANTOWN, VA., Sept. 25, 1857.

Ship me immediately 12 dozen German Bitters, and I assure you no medicine in the world can equal them in sale, the demand for it being beyond all precedent. It affords me pleasure to sell a medicine so satisfactory to all. Our physicians no longer scout at it, but are compelled to acknowledge its intrinsic value, and the greater part of them have had occasion to call at my establishment to lay aside their prejudices and prescribe it in their practice.

Ask for Boofland's German Bitters, and take nothing else. They are prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies and South America, at 75 cents per bottle.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE WEATHER.—The sun again poured down its melting rays yesterday, but the heat was somewhat moderated by gentle breezes. We were visited by a fine shower of rain during the afternoon, which checked in a degree the very great relief of animal and vegetable nature. The thermometer just previously stood at 100 degrees higher than it has at any other time this season.

ALLEGED FORGERY AND KIDNAPPING.—A man named F. H. Crosby was arrested last evening by the Chief of Police, on a charge of having in his possession a negro man named Fountain Johnson, who he supposed to be a runaway. He is also charged with having forged free papers for the negro. Both were locked up for examination this morning before Recorder Bell. Crosby admitted to the Chief of Police that he forged the papers in question. He and the negro had come from Mobile, from which the negro says belongs to himself.

INFORMATION OBTAINED.—Parties Arrested. Lieutenant Dryden and officer Dalton arrested Patrick Roche and Thomas Ryan, two parties concerned in an affair Tuesday morning, in which a cab containing two men and three women in it was upset in the vicinity of high brow, while returning from the Lake, via the new Shellroad, at a dairy on Bienville street, near the Metairie Ridge, where the party stopped, and took it in force, drank as much as they pleased, and spilled the balance, breaking pitchers, &c.; at the same time the women were robbed of their watches, whose husband was in the city selling milk." The is the party of whom inquiry was made for in a notice published in the True Delta of the 24th instant. The parties arrested are the cab-drivers alleged to be guilty in the premises. The police are confident also of catching the women who are implicated in the matter.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Joseph Jones, f. m. c., of Richards alley, in the Fourteenth ward, last night, about 9 o'clock, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, on a charge of highway robbery. The accused is also charged, by officer Lenfant, owing to his bad tact in representing himself to be special officer Brooks, with the theft of a watch from Mr. Lenfant.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—A man, known only by the name of Frederick, committed suicide Saturday morning, in the boarding-house No. 180 Old Levee, by hanging himself. The jury of inquest, "Suicide." It appears that he was a shoemaker by trade, and that he had eaten very little for several days. A woman heard the noise made by the fall of his room at 5 o'clock Saturday, and soon after a man returning from fishing found him dead on the floor, apparently with both legs broken. He had previously purchased a pistol for two dollars, and this was found by the Coroner in his trunk. He was about forty-five years of age. A post mortem examination was made by Dr. Delery, city physician of the Second District, which found the mouth and tongue torn to pieces, and the lower jawbone broken just under the nose. Still no pistol could be found. He was in a state of liquor, and in the room; however, but this was too large to have emanated from the muzzle of the pistol. The door was gashed all around the mouth, but not deeper than the skin. It appears, therefore, a matter of doubt whether the gashes were cut with a knife, or were the result of the bursting of the skin from the force of the explosion. The case is a very singular one, although there is no doubt the man committed suicide, as the testimony of the witnesses, which was separately taken, conclusively corroborated it.

Suicide of a Woman.—A female, said to be named Mary Ann Gazeau, was observed Friday morning floating for about half an hour by the river side, near the Third District Ferry, when she suddenly halted, but for a moment, and then plunged headlong into the turbid waters to rise no more. She was poor, a man who was near the scene hastened to rescue her, but only succeeded in grasping the bonnet from her head. Her life, we are told, has been one of the most unfortunate domestic relations.

THE RECORDER COURT.—Alexander Gaffney was examined Saturday before Recorder Summers, and committed to the First District Court for trial on a charge of receiving stolen property. A quantity of brick and lime, which, according to the oath of Mr. Jamison, was stolen from his firm, Jamison & McCulloch, by a couple of negroes, found in possession of Gaffney, was properly identified by Mr. Jamison.

Owen Murphy was sent to prison to await hearing on the charge of highway robbery of $4 from Charles Engleman, while the latter was crossing in a buggy over the bridge of the New Canal.

The charge of larceny against Mrs. Faucett was inquired into and discharged.

Assistant Recorder Monroe held Mrs. R. Fenner, son and servant to bail to answer to the charge of abuse and slander preferred against her by Mr. Jared Graham, of Thalia street. The complaints against Mrs. Fenner are loud and bitter, and from all accounts she is, without doubt, an intolerable nuisance to her neighbors.

Recorder Wills held Robert Forbes to $500 bail to answer to a charge of having violently beaten Belle Chester, of 317 Customhouse street, and of habitually beating her whenever he sees her—and all without provocation.

Frank A. Hart, who resides on St. Louis street, was examined, and committed to the First District Court for trial, on a charge of having stolen a lot of clothing from the residence of his neighbor, James Kiernan.

A slave named Henry, belonging to Dr. Maloy, was held to answer, before Recorder Long, to the charge of having stolen a stock of Parkhill Bitters, of the Second District.

ASSAULT.—A lady was arrested last Saturday by officer Mannion, of the Second District Police, on a dangerous and suspicious character.

A Mrs. Laselle was arrested in the First District by officer Hyland on a charge of stopping lawful possession of the child of Hugh McKenny.

Mary Faulk was arrested by constable Bogan and Stephens on a charge, by D. H. Hildreth, of the St. Charles Hotel, of receiving stolen property. The officers found a quantity of the articles stolen.

Larry Keagan was arrested by officer Paul on a charge, by Mary Kavenaugh, of getting drunk and breaking the windows of her house, and threatening her life.

O. M. Hall was arrested by Lieut. Stinon, of the Third District, for passing counterfeit money and having in his possession eleven pieces of counterfeit $5 50 gold pieces and as many spurious quarter dollars.

ARSONS.—The police report a man named James Boggs to have fallen out of the second story of a house, No. 30 Gallatin street, in the Second District, and a man named John O'Neally to have been accidentally injured very severely by falling out of a window, corner of St. Charles and St. Mary's streets. Both were taken to the Charity Hospital dangerously wounded.

The Sheriff sells TO-DAY, at 12 o'clock, M., at the City Hotel, Common street, a lot of ground, with a two-story house and kitchen, &c., thereon, on Girode street, between Gravier and Perdido streets, First District. See advertisement.

THE STOMACH prepares the elements of the bile and the blood, and if it does the work feebly and imperfectly, fever and other vexatious diseases are the certain result. At once, therefore, as any afflictions of this kind are perceived, we may rest assured that the digestive organs are out of order. The surest remedy for such a state is to administer a specific which will act directly on the stomach—the main spring of the animal machinery. For this purpose we can confidently recommend Dr. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. Those who have tried it are loud in its praise, for promptness of digestion, changes the character of the blood, and thereby gives regularity to the bowels.
