COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES,
Friday Evening, August 7, 1868.

The general market still wears a quiet appearance, though a fair amount of business for the season has been done during the past week. Cotton has been dull, with a drooping appearance, and closes at a decline of nearly all qualities. In Tobacco there have been some movement and a better prices. Sugar had again nearly arrived, and Molasses is firmer. In Western produce the business has been limited, but at very full prices for Flour, Pork and Bacon. Grain being without material change. Freights have been in good demand and steady.

The Peoria's advices, with dates from Liverpool to the 24th ult., appeared in our columns on Wednesday morning. They reported a drooping Cotton market, with sales of 45,000 bales during the week, including 1,000 for speculation and export. All qualities had slightly declined, inferior ½d and fair and middling 1 16-16, the market closing quiet. Our telegraphic advices from Liverpool to the 25th ult., closing at 20¾@ ⅝ per cent, showing no further decline.

COTTON—Arrivals since the 30th ultimo, 2174 bales. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 5033 bales, Havre 336, Boston 690, and New York 3 bales; coastwise, 6208 bales, showing a reduction in stock of 4 58 bales, and leaving on hand, &c., a stock of 46,899 bales.
