PIKE'S PEAK.

If we examine a correct map of the Territory of Kanesa, we shall discover in the extreme western porton, about latitude 39, instituted 10%, a mountainous chain, indicated on the map as Park mountains, in nearly the centre of which is a place designated as which is a place of mountains. The second of the Park force formed by the Rocky mountains. The's Peak is set now the El Dorado to Atlante States; the concurs of area of the Atlante States; the concurs of a such party and in such quantities as already to have attracted general attention, and to have streaded to the sterile spot thousands of the difficulties which attend traveling to Pacia Peak are not inconsiderable. It lies some fire hundred males west of Leavenworth city. A large protion of the route is a deart of a widerness, where there are few white men save the hardy hunter and trapper, to be seen, and where hostile indians not unfrequently are snownered. But the distance from the sites of civilization to Pike's Peak is accreely a tenth of that which separates us from California, and the hard ships which the immigrant may have to endure are far his serviculus than those attending a pourney to Pracer river. The expense, too, is comparatively trining.
