INTERESTING INTELLIGENCE.

We have at length the pleasure of announcing the resumption of our reliable correspondence from the city of Mexico, having received by the Tennessee an exceedingly interesting letter, with the latest newspaper accounts from the capital. The ourrespondence sub-med will engine our readers as to the state of adurs in the miscalled reliable.

agal here, that I salvis our of the capital had been breading. For its distribution of the capital had been preparing for an importunithrowement. They had expended $2.00,000 in the purchase of arms, to gain majover certain indicated different and in securing their cooperation at the appointed time. On the 13th 0.4 her there remained but 1200 for open in the

The circumstance referred to by our correspondent is as follows. At the moment of Mr. Forsyth's department, a certain Mr. forporena, who had for some time been secret. conself from the police, was arreste entering the diagence, and summone ng housel from the pooce, was arrested with entering the discence and summoned topsy $2,000 obering his share of the forced loan or to go to prison. Logierena, after some discussion, encluded to pay, and was a wed to ease. But it seems that he had let behind him certain debts, and on arriving at Orizaba another order for his arrest was presented. Thereupon Mr. Forsith claimed Liperena as one of his ser vants, and decisted that he was included in his own passiont. In vain dd the government substituting protest. Mr. Forsyth was index ble, and the rich financier, assuming addoc the character of a valet, was triumphantly carried off to Cord va. There the difficulty was renewed, but our Minister refused to bulke an inch, and Loperena went on his way re long, and has probably arrived at Vera Cruz in safety.

Having admitted into our columns the minimization's given best on the reply of Mr. McMinan. With this, however, the controversy must close, as far as our justa is concerned.
