

MARINE NEWS.

at New Orleans, Jan. 28, 1860.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, January 1.

DUCOMBE'S

PICTORAL BALSAMIC SYRUP

This valuable Syrup was first offered to the public, and although it was very popular, and recommended by many physicians, it has, by its own merits, gained an irretrievable popularity, and is now used throughout the country.

(Unpublished) remedies of the past, will be found in all the old books, and in many of the new, such as, cochineal, liverwort, hastichorda, inflammation of the throat, sputting of blood, hoarseness, cough, influenza, &c.

In all affections of the lungs, coughing on.

of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co.
PHILADELPHIA

OF NEW YORK.
THIRTY-ANNUAL STATEMENT.

NEW ORLEANS, January 11, 1916.
 Under the requirements of their Charter
MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY published the following statement:
 Premiums received for the year
 December 31, 1915..... $159,665.92
 undeterminable risks, Std. Deviation.....
 130,065.00
 Total premium for the year ended December, 1915, viz..... 664,130.92
 Premiums on fire risks..... $361,616.00
 Premiums on marine risks..... 264,665.25
 Premiums on river risks..... 201,361.65
 Premiums on auto risks not terminated December, 1915..... 130,567.25
 Premiums on life..... 5,418.04
 Total premiums..... 333,980.50

...Recom

QUEEN
Layette Inc.

YOUNG LADIES
of Madame ED-
COMP. ST.
AND ST. JOSEPH
founded by Dr.
high reputation has
won its sixteenth
T, assisted by her T, with whom she endeavors to con-
for so many years
her talents are em-
and ornamented.
stage, will be tau-

CREDIT SALE.

BY E. ROGER & CO., A.M.

1000 pieces Books, Bibles and Scripture for children, comprising a fresh and enlarged edition.
The Cost, $200.00 per year.

Foreign and American Books

BY VINCENT & CO.

W^Hile, in their Foreign and American Books, at their section number 100, included and arranged for publication, the following:
One hundred and twenty-five packages of Attractive Dry Goods, such as Knit-Work, Mits, Bonnets, caps, etc., hand
knitted, crocheted, broidered, etc.
Terms as above.

BY R. B. SYKES

Cargo of bark Alessandro Secondo, in

BY CHA
TELLER

1990-1991

on Broad street, between line and St. Paul street.

BY N. VIGNE, Auctioneer.

NOTICE OF GRIMMELD in the square
of St. Paul's Ursuline and Bourgogne, on each 20 feet 3 inches and 7 inches in width, 20 feet 3 inches and 7 inches in height, 10 feet 6 inches and 3 inches in depth. HIRE—The purchase to assume the payment of the sum, dated the 22d day of February, 1800, and the taxes due the 1st day of May, 1800, and the taxes due the 1st day of June, 1800; balance paid.
Attest: A. E. BLOOMFIELD, notary public.

Succession Rule.
By WILLIAM GREEN, Sheriff of the

EXTENSIVE SUGAR PLANTATION
BY virtue of an order of the Executive Judge of St. Martin.

During the time, and by reason of the following circumstances, Mr. C. Constantine Lahmeyer, who had been engaged in the business of buying and selling sugar, will be offered at public auction, to the highest bidder, the following property:

A D. 1000 ACRES OF LAND, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie, containing 1000 acres of land, being a sugar plantation, participating in the revenue of the sugar mill of the same name, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie.

A SUGAR PLANTATION, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie, containing 1000 acres of land, being a sugar plantation, participating in the revenue of the sugar mill of the same name, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie.

A BRAT OF LAND, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie, containing 1000 acres of land, being a sugar plantation, participating in the revenue of the sugar mill of the same name, situated in the parish of Sainte-Lucie.