COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
Friday Evening, Dec. 9, 1860.

A fair amount of business has been done in our general market during the past week, and prices have been very well maintained for nearly all descriptions of produce, in some articles of which we have noticed a considerable advance over previous quotations. In Cotton, however, there has been no favorable change, though a good demand has existed during the greater part of the week.

Molasses, Pork and Pork have advanced, with a more active enquiry. In Sugars but little has been done. Freights have improved, while Exchange has shown some expansion.

Tenth morning we published the Entendegg's advices embracing Liverpool dates to the 30th ult., and covering an interval of twelve days. Compared with mail of early 21, one takes during the fortnight ten days, including 3000 for speculation and export, with a partial decline of 1/4 d upon the quotations of the Europa, the market closing dull, with a decreasing tendency. The accounts from Manchester, however, represent the general trade better, though only a quiet market at the close.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 24 instant, 72,972 bales. Consisted in the steamships Arizona, 1,000 bales, Glasgow 1500, Queenstown 2,000, Havre 60 bales, Barcelona 542, Genoa 2000, Havana 2, Boston 2150, and New York 2345 bales. Sailed since the 24 inst., making an addition to the stock of 29,542 bales, and leaving on hand, including all on shipboard not cleared this day, a mass of 261,430 bales.

STATEMENT OF COTTON.

	Bales.
Stock on hand 1st September, 1860	29,555
Received during the week	72,972
previously	799,671	872,643
Exported during the week	44,184
previously	464,994	509,178
Stock in presses and on shipboard not cleared		257,466

The week opened with unfavorable weather and with a poorly assorted stock on the market, the sales of Saturday and Monday last reaching only fixed to 11,000 bales. Subsequently, however, a more liberal movement prevailed, with sales of 12,000 bales on Tuesday, 11,000 on Wednesday, 23,000 yesterday, and 12,000 to day, making a total for the week of 79,000 bales. Prices generally have been rather in favor of buyers, though without any material fluctuations, and the market closes at the range of our quotations, as follows:

Inferior	8—9
Ordinary	9½@9¾
Good Ordinary	9¾@10¼
Low Middling	10¼@10½
Middling	10½@11
Good Middling	11@11¼
Middling Fair	11¼@11½
Fair	11½@11¾

TOBACCO.—Arrived since the 24 instant, 540 hhds. Cleared in the same time for Leith 604 hhds. Hogsheads 2, and New York 65 hhds—together 740 hhds. Stock on handand on shipboard not cleared, 29,316 hhds.

The market for Tobacco continues very dull, with only an occasional transaction of low figures for common lots, and unfavorable weather for handling the same, and the sales reported during the past week have reached but 500 hhds, of which none of the particulars have been reported.

We reduce our quotations to about the range at which holders are offering, although there are no buyers at these figures for large lots:

Factory Logs	5—6½
Planters' Logs	6½@7½
Leaf, Inferior to Common	4½@6½
Fair	6½@8½
Good	8½@9½
Choice and Selections	11½@—

SUGAR.—There has been a good demand throughout the week, with an increasing tendency in prices from day to day, in view of the shortness of the crop, which, it is believed, cannot reach 175,000 hhds. The sales of the week embrace some 5000 hhds, and the market closes at the range of the following advance figures:

Inferior	4—4¾
Common	4¾@5¼
Fair to Fully Fair	5¼@5¾
Prime and Choice	5¾@6¼
Centrifugal, all descriptions	6¾@7¾

MOLASSES.—The receipts have met with a brisk demand, and prices have advanced, with sales of 16 000 bbls during the week at 23@25c for inferior, 27@28c for prime to choice, and 27@28c for interior, fermenting, &c. Some 5000 bbls sailing.

FLOUR.—There has been a better demand for Flour, and prices have been improved, with sales during the week of 12,000 bbls at 5 40@5 60 for 10 and 5 65 12½ for superfine, 6 30@6 75 for extra fancy to good extra, and 8 00@7 75 ₱ bbl. for choice extra brands.

WHEAT.—The receipts have been trifling, and we have heard of no sales of this least importance during the past week.

CORN.—The demand has been fair, and with moderate receipts prices have been very fully maintained. The week's sales have embraced some 28,000 sacks at 61@65 and the 70 ₱ bushel for white and yellow and prime white, some prime bringing 72½@75c ₱ bushel, and some lots, from store, selling at 75c

OATS.—There has been a good demand, but at lower prices, and some 36,000 sacks St Louis have been sold during the week at 45@47½c, and one or two lots of Western at about 49c ₱ bus.

BRAN.—Prices have ranged at $1 12½@$1 30, Most of the transactions being at $1 15@$1 20 ₱ 100 lbs., but closing at $1 25, and holders asking a further advance.

HAY.—We have noticed sales of about 1000 bales New York at $1 40@$1 50, and one or two lots of Western at about 85c ₱ 100.

PORK.—Prices have further advanced, the principal sales being 200 bbls Mess at $17 50@$18, and 600 Prime at $17 ₱ bbl., some holders asking still higher rates. The stock at the inspection warehouse on the 1st instant embraced 6315 bbls. of all kinds.

BACON.—There has been some enquiry, with sales of 300 to 400 casks to the trade, at 10¼@10¾c for shoulders, 10¾@10¾c for Ribbed Sides, and 12¼@12¾c ₱ lb. for retail lots of Clear Sides, Some 1500 hhds. Sides sailing by every Thursday steamer, carrying the United States mail.

A. PERIER,
350.....ROYAL STREET.....350
Between St. Philip and Ursulines streets.

His numerous customers are informed that he undertakes to keep their Grand Concert Pianos and all kinds of Pianos for parties and balls in order at their residences.

The advantages which he offers to customers and to artists is unquestionable, and may be ascertained by referring to those who have already enjoyed it. Price is also a real difference.

Pianos repaired, and second-hand Pianos taken in exchange. nov 10 lmw

Harmoniums and Alcohealed Pianos.

ADOLPHE FLANDRAIN,
44.....CONTI STREET.....44
Between Chartres and Royal streets.

HAS just received an assortment of Harmoniums and Alcohealed Pianos, directly from the manufactorers of A. Debain, Paris, superior to all the European Courts.

The above instruments are highly recommended. First, on account of the moral difficult pieces can be performed with the advantages of music. These instruments are manufactured and improved expressly for exportation, and are acknowledged to prove to be superior to all others.

Amateurs are invited to call and judge for themselves at the occasions of the above Pianos. Mr. F. Conard will attend to repairs and tuning, and the terms are therefore moderate.

Second-hand Pianos bought and sold.
