

Advertisement for 'THE NEW ORLEANS' newspaper, detailing subscription rates and contact information for the publisher, J. C. DUNN.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Washington, February 20. The House of Representatives has passed a bill to provide for the transportation of the remains of the late General Sherman to New Orleans for interment in the city. The bill is reported by the War Department.

Further European Intelligence
By the Steamer 'Macon'.
New York, February 19. The steamer 'Macon' has arrived from Europe, bringing the following intelligence:
The Spanish Question.
It is stated that the principles of the Paris Conference will be maintained, and that the Spanish question will be finally settled by the intervention of the Great Powers.

The United States.
Washington, February 20. The House of Representatives has passed a bill to provide for the transportation of the remains of the late General Sherman to New Orleans for interment in the city. The bill is reported by the War Department.

The City of New Orleans.
New Orleans, February 21. The city of New Orleans is in a state of quietude. The business of the day is going on as usual. There is no news of any special interest.

The United States.
Washington, February 20. The House of Representatives has passed a bill to provide for the transportation of the remains of the late General Sherman to New Orleans for interment in the city. The bill is reported by the War Department.

The United States.
Washington, February 20. The House of Representatives has passed a bill to provide for the transportation of the remains of the late General Sherman to New Orleans for interment in the city. The bill is reported by the War Department.

Advertisement for 'THE NEW ORLEANS' newspaper, detailing subscription rates and contact information for the publisher, J. C. DUNN.

Advertisement for 'THE NEW ORLEANS' newspaper, detailing subscription rates and contact information for the publisher, J. C. DUNN.