COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY PICAYUNE,
Saturday Evening, Nov. 10, 1860.

BROKERS.—A good demand prevailed, on Saturday, and sales were effected about 11,000 bales—of this quantity the [illegible] speculators took about 4,000 bales, while the others [illegible]. We respect our quotations:

[illegible]
Ordinary.....
Good Ordinary.....
Low Middling.....
Middling.....
Good Middling.....
Fair.....

TOBACCO.—We did not hear of a sale.

SUGAR.—About 400 hhds. sold, on Saturday, and still more in favor of buyers. Fair to fully fair, 3¾@4¼c; clarified, 4¾@5¼c P lb.

MOLASSES.—There was a fair demand for prime, with sales of about 1000 bbls, at 23@24c P gallon. Fair to prime to 20@22c.

FLOUR.—The sales consisted of 1000 bbls, regardless of brands, at $5 12½ P bbl. Extra family, $5 25@5 37½; extra, $5 12½@5 25; fancy, $5 00@5 12½; family, $4 87½@5 00; choice, $4 75@4 87½; good, $4 62½@4 75; medium, $4 50@4 62½; common, $4 37½@4 50; inferior to ordinary, $4 25@4 37½.

CORN.—We received 1000 sacks of white corn, on Saturday, but 1000 bushels of mixed sold, on the levee, at 60c P bushel.

OATS.—We received 1000 sacks and 40 bbls, P bushel.

BRAN.—We received 2000 sacks, partly damaged, at 50c P sack.

HAY.—75 bales Western hay sold at 95c, 150 at 97½, 100 at 98c, 100 at 99c, and 100 at 99½ P 100.

POTATOES.—The receipts were confined to small lots at $2@2 50 P bbl for Irish.

BACON.—No sales reported. 20 tierces shoulders at 9½c, and 20 ditto at 10½c P lb.

ONIONS.—We heard of 600 sacks sold at 90c P bushel.

CORN MEAL.—We heard of only 20 bbls, sold at 3½c P lb.

WHISKEY.—We heard of only 20 bbls, sold at 23c P gallon.

FREIGHTS.—Eleven ships were reported as taking on board, comprising two hundred and [illegible] tons, for Liverpool at 1-16d., one for Havre, at 1½f P ton, two for Liverpool at 1-16d., one for Bremen at 1½f P ton, one for Liverpool at 1-16d., one for Bremen at 1½f P ton, one for Liverpool at 1-16d., one for Bremen at 1½f P ton, one