A STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT.

Gen. HALLECK, the commander-in-chief of the Federal forces in Missouri, is reported to have announced to the authorities at Washington, on the strength of the capture of Fort Henry, that the Union was re-established. The philosopher in the White House proved as correct a prophet from one victory as he has been in a half-score of previous defeats. The new Lincoln policy against the commerce of the world, Earl Russell says further: A second remonstrance will be made, warning Seward against barricading other ports of the South as Charleston is barricaded.

The Confederate steamer Sumter was at Gibraltar on the 25th of January. During her passage from Cadiz she burned the bark Neapolitan, from Messina, bound to Boston, laden with fruit. She also captured the bark Investigator, bound to Newport, with ore, but afterwards released her. It is reported the Sumter sank another vessel off Algiers.

The schooner West India had arrived at Liverpool from Charleston, flying the Confederate flag.

The European interpretation of the ineffective blockade grows bolder, and the impression in Liverpool was that France would lead in breaking it up.

From Norfolk.

Secession Ireland in Possession of the Rebellion.

Norfolk, February 9.—A steamer has arrived to-night with the impression that the Federals have taken possession of Edenton, N. C., but otherwise, at 4 o'clock. A Federal force numbering 15,000 men was landed against him from Roanoke Island, and we do not believe in expressing an assurance that those who may join his company will not only be satisfied, but will pride in having him as their commander. His qualities above all others are those which best suit forth the indecorous effrontery in those who may be disposed to become members of a voluntary company.

All our country's strongest hospitals of the world, and the Franklin Republic.

The late rains have impeded planting operations materially, and from the unsettled state of this weather, we presume planters will not be able to make much headway in their fields for the present. Our streets are almost impassable, and the sidewalks deserted. His reason is physical inability to confirm the decree.

[EIGHT DISPATCHES.]

From Richmond.

Richmond, February 10.—The Lynchburg Virginian has received a private letter from the Confederate camp near Dalton, which states the enemy's pickets reached Florence about four o'clock, P. M. yesterday, (Saturday) landing from the river. They were also close upon the line of Tuscumbia last night. This morning they left, and have gone in their direction.

A later dispatch received by the Virginian of to-day (10th), from Chattanooga, says that the reported fight at Bear Creek is untrue. The Lincolnites again returned to Florence. No battle has occurred.

Official communication is entirely cut off with this place and Memphis.

The Lincolnites are landing at Eastport, Miss., thirty miles below Florence, on the Tennessee river.

From Norfolk.

Norfolk, February 10.—G. Jennings Wise was shot through the left and disabled; the second is not mortal. Major Lawson and Lieut. Hiller are mortally wounded. About 200 Confederates were killed and wounded, and over 1500 Yankees killed and wounded. Lieut. Col. Oaman had his arm shot off. The casualties are not reported.

An attack this morning states Elizabeth City was shelled and burnt by the Yankees, and the enemy are pushing forward to Edenton.

From Nashville.

Nashville, February 10.—Passengers by this evening's boat say our troops repair the Federal industry and cavalry were within four miles of Florence on Friday. Other passengers say the gunboat were in sight of the fort on yesterday.

A private despatch from Clarksville to-day says the Federals are there and cannot be taken. The Federals have destroyed several spans of the bridge at Florence connecting with Tuscumbia.

There were six steamboats at the Florence landing, two of which, the Federals captured, and the other four were set on fire and burned by the evacuation of Florence.

Gen. Buckner, from Decatur, this evening, says every thing is quiet. The trains will run regularly again on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad.

From Richmond.

Richmond, February 10.—Dr. Willy C. Bookter, of the First Arkansas regiment, was killed at Lynchburg by the cars, this evening. He resided in Jefferson county, Arkansas.

Republican Rumors.

The Lafayette Union has the following:

Capt. Frank Dashiell, a much esteemed gentleman of Lafayette county, is organizing a volunteer company and to be mustered in the service of the Confederate States. Capt. D. is a son of Gen. Dashiell, military collector, gauger and inspector of this and we do not hesitate
