THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS.
SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15.

SUBSCRIPTIONS BY THE WEEK.

This service will be first and authorized to receive subscriptions to our paper at the rate of 25 cents a week, payable in all cases to the collector himself.

Orders at Associate Offices.

New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15, 1862. Vol. XVII—New Series. Vol. XXXIV.—Whole No. 12,310.

BY TELEGRAPH.

[SUBJECTED TO THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.]

From Lincolnshire, via Norfolk.

Norfolk, February 13—Hampton, in his speech to the Legislature, said: "We shall view with indifference Austria's occupation of Venetia, long as the rights of nonbelligerents are respected, he must question himself in whatever manner that their dimensions may seem to be of advantage."

In Congress, Nathaniel King, of New York, presented a petition on Tuesday for the payment of the pensioners of the Revolutionary army, and their widows, residing in the State of New York to stop past the Government.

A resolution was adopted that Congress request the Committee of Ways and Means on the 22d, that the President and Cabinet, the Diplomatic representatives, and the officers of the army and navy be invited to attend, and Washington's birthday be observed.

Ex-Gov. Wise of New Hampshire, said we had many public robber and some cowardly officers. Rogers, Mason and Slidell arrived at Southampton on the 19th ult. The Bienville could not reach Milford on account of a gale, and proceeded to Bermuda. No public demonstration was made on their arrival, but a large concourse of citizens assembled at the dock, and three cheers received by the officers of the Confederate steamer Nashville and other gentlemen.

The Yankee steamer Tuscarora has left Southampton.

McCullie, the President of the Civil Tribunal of Rome, has been assassinated.

The stock of coffee at Rio was 300,000 bags on the 8th of January.

A dispatch from St. Louis, dated 11th inst., says: The Confederates are being reinforced, and daily are constantly they can hold their own.

From Norfolk.

Norfolk, February 13—The French war steamer Gassendi arrived at Hampton Roads on the 10th inst. Commodore Gautier had two of the officers arrived here to-day.

The Federal forces took possession of Edenton, yesterday morning. The inhabitants had nearly all left, and it is reported they proceeded up the Roanoke to Plymouth.

[HIGHT DISPATCHES]

From Richmond.

Richmond, February 14—The battles of Capt. O. J. Wise, Lieut. Wm. Selden and Capt. Coles arrived here this morning from Roanoke Island. Capt. Wise had been shot through the body, and died on the passage. Lieut. Selden has a ball through his left leg, and Lieut. Selden has a ball through his left leg, and Lieut. Selden has a ball through his left leg, and