

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1862.
New Orleans, May 29, 1862.
Major-General Butler,
Commander-in-Chief of the Gulf Department of the U.S. Army.

News from Europe and the North.
The only news from Europe is a dispatch from London, which is contained in a dispatch from the War Department, dated the 26th inst. It contains a portion of a company of infantry belonging to the 10th Illinois, which was captured by the rebels...

Port Darling, on the James river, seven miles below Richmond.
The only news from the North is a dispatch from the War Department, dated the 26th inst. It contains a portion of a company of infantry belonging to the 10th Illinois, which was captured by the rebels...

The New Police—Provost Marshal French has received 100 applications for places on the new police, who are requested to assemble at the Provost Marshal's office to-day, at nine o'clock, P. M.

First District Court—Judge Bell.
We spent an hour or more in this Court yesterday, and found the whole of justice revolving at a very good pace, as if they were perfectly acquainted with the duties of good temper and excellent sense. We did not see all the phases of life represented by the many cases of the day...

WEDNESDAY, 4th June, 1862.
The following is a list of the names of the persons who were present at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Crescent Mutual Insurance Company, held on the 4th inst. at 10 o'clock, P. M.

AUCTION SALES.
Succession of Jacques Christian Jules Vigne.
BY CHAS. E. MOULTAIL, Auctioneer.
Office, No. 26 Exchange Alley.

HEAT, HEALTH, &c.
Summer comes upon us. The heat of the spring months is drawing rapidly to a close, and with the waning of June we may naturally look for a sudden and considerable increase of heat.

Explosion at the Powder Mills—One of the rolling, or incorporating mills, at the powder works, at the city, exploded with a terrific noise about 7 o'clock this morning. Four men were more or less injured by the explosion...

As yet with the morning.
The House of Representatives has passed a bill prohibiting polygamy in Utah, and publishing it as a penal offense against the United States. Changes have been made in the organic law of the territory, which, it is thought, will render it impracticable to carry this law into effect.

Police Matters—We could find nothing more important in the police station last night than the following:
They were overhauled at the request of the Mayor, and found that the jail was in a state of disrepair, and that the jailer was not doing his duty.

Second District Court of New Orleans.
Succession of Alfred Donnadieu.
BY JOHN F. WALDEN, Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans.
