AWING THE ISSUE.

According to the telegraphic outgoings, the Government at Washington has decided that the proclamation of General Farnsworth was not a wise measure, and by other words, Lincoln and his Cabinet give the weight of their official sanction and endorsement to Farnsworth's wicked and infamous declaration. The pointed and deliberate policy of the rebels is to show every man who takes up arms to resist in authority, to confide his slaves, should he own any, to emancipate his slaves, he should be owned.

Habiles in Missouri to bear the character of adheres of extemism, and the approval by Lincoln of such a mode of action, the forces of the United States are sufficiently numerous to command and overawe any portion of Southern territory, the mass heart and bloody plot will be snuffed.

Well, the Vandals are at least throwing aside all dising. They are becoming franker than ever. They are crossing to the South with the trans-patriot horizons of Unionists. They no longer affect to regard us as erring children who must be gently chastised into obedience, and then welcomed back to the fold. They are to show every man who takes up arms to resist in authority, to confide his slaves, should he own any, to emancipate his slaves, he should be owned.
