The Ladies' Society of the Confederate Army funds will be used for the benefit of the Southern women who have no other means of support. We have furnished lists and bibles, and supplied many families with places of residence for our people who have no home.

When the little work that each individual can do is done, we have no time to sit back and wonder.

However, nothing that we have done up to the present has been done in the interest of the women who have no home, and we are unable to perform satisfactorily the ordinary duties we have undertaken, and we are unable to do more.

We have done some very fine work, however, in helping others to partially meet their needs.

It is the desire of the Society that each woman who employs such as the Southern women, shall give her full time to the work of the Society.

It is the desire of the Society that each woman
