Another Account of the Patterson-ville Fight.

FEDERAL SOLDIERS AND SAILORS CAPTURED.

The Era, in its evening edition, publishes the following additional particulars of the Patterson-ville fight:

Gen. Weitzel, who had heard of reports that the steamer Hart and another, name unknown, had escaped out of Bayou Teche into Grand Lake. It was also reported that the Confederates had two pieces of artillery and three hundred infantry at Rachell's plantation. Upon these reports Gen. Weitzel sent the Diana under Acting Master Peterson, to make a reconnoissance to the mouth of Bayou Teche by Grand Lake Pass, directions being given him to return by the same route known to be free from danger. Instead of returning by the route directed, Capt. Peterson went up the Teche to the Atchafalaya, intending to come back to Brashear City that way. There were 100 Confederates, about two hundred and fifty cavalry and a battery to meet the Diana. Upon hearing this, Captain Peterson intimated that he could whip half a dozen batteries with his heavy guns, and shortly after he commenced shelling the position.

The Confederates reserved their fire until the Diana had come up with and passed a portion of their light batteries, which gave them all the advantages of position they could desire, when they opened on the Diana with artillery and infantry.

The pilots, engineers and nineteen men of the Diana escaped by swimming ashore.

After demolishing, as the officers of the Diana had been either killed, wounded or escaped, and the vessel being aground, it was decided to surrender; and Acting Ensign Allen, of his headquarters, was signaled to that effect.

Southern Negroes En Masse.

The following from the New York Commercial of the 16th inst.:

Having failed to secure the enlistment of negroes in the Department of the South, papers will now be had to force. Orders have been issued that "all able bodied male negroes will be drafted into the military service of the United States," have been issued at Hilton Head and Key West. The Fort Royal New South publishes the following:

General Orders No. 17.

Headquarters Department of the South, Hilton Head, Port Royal, S. C., March 6, 1863.

In view of the necessities of the military situation, the impossibility of obtaining from government all the troops required for service in this department, and the paramount importance to the views of ultimate completion of foreign policy, of at once placing strong garrisons of thoroughly acclimated troops in the Southern forts and posts of this department, in order that the troops now here may be used in the more active field operations for which they are better adapted—such forts and posts being peculiarly liable to the ravages of climate and epidemic diseases—all the able bodied male negroes between the ages of sixteen and fifty within the military lines of the Department of the South, who are not, on the date of the issue of this order, regularly and permanently employed in the Quartermaster and Commissary Department, or as the private servants of officers, within the allowance made by the Army Regulations, are hereby directed into the military service of the United States, to serve as laborers, with such commissioned officers and soldiers of the various regiments and brigades now organized, and in process of being organized by Brigadier-General Rufus Saxton, specially authorized to raise such troops by orders of the War Department.

Until other arrangements can be made, the families of all negroes thus drafted will be provided for by order which Gen. Saxton has authority to issue.

By command of Major General David Hunter.

Chas. G. Halpine, A. A. General.

The orders promulgated at Key West are substantially the same, and by virtue of the slaves belonging to loyal owners (negroes being declared indemnitymently), have been put in uniform and sent to South Carolina.

Battle between Central America.

BATTLE BETWEEN THE GUATEMALAN AND THE SALVADORIAN TROOPS.

The Panama correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows under date of March 5:

The Panama Railroad Company's steamship Salvador, Captain Rathbun, arrived at Panama from Central American ports on the 5th, with news from Salvador, Guatemala and Nicaragua to March 26, and from Costa Rica to the 3d instant. The news is important. Salvador and Guatemala had inaugurated a Central American union that promises to comprise all the five States. In my last, I gave you a short history of the origin and progress of the quarrel between Guatemala and Salvador, or rather between President Carrera and Barrios, for it had its origin solely in personal feeling, in hatred, prejudices or difficulties. I also announced the marching of four thousand troops from Guatemala toward the frontier of Salvador, and the departure of a body of men under Gen. Barrios for Comsefque, to hasten the progress of the invaders. This place is sixteen leagues from the city of San Salvador, and its natural strength was increased at once by the French and other engineers, whom Barrios had placed at the head of his force. On the 23d of February, after having a day or two before taken many of the deserted town of Santana, Carrera, with sixteen hundred men, made a bold attack on Barrios's intrenchments, but was repulsed, with a loss of over one hundred men. On the 24th, at 8 A. M., the attack was renewed with great fury, and continued until 4 P. M., when Carrera was compelled to withdraw, leaving four rifled guns, a considerable quantity of munitions of war, three hundred killed, and of course a large number of wounded on the field. Among the Guatemalan officers said to be killed were Generals Navas and Munoz, the former Carrera's principal General. Gen. Barrios, in bulletin, claims a decisive victory, and says that Generals Gonzales and Bonilla are in hot pursuit of the enemy. He attributes to the greatest bitterness ever was exhibited in America.

It was suspected that Nicaragua would open both Guatemala against Salvador, and apparent implications are that Honduras will join Salvador. There is a rumor, however, to overthrow the Carrera interest in Honduras, and place in power Gen. Xatruch Hernandez, who was conspicuous in the war against Walker, and who is at present in Nicaragua, holding the appointment of Provincial Governor of Rio Segovia. If this authentic should succeed, Barrios's enemies will probably be too strong for him, as the rulers of Costa Rica also have this, and will lend what covert assistance they can to Guatemala, even if they do not openly declare in her favor.

In Nicaragua, President Martinez, fearing an invasion from Barrios, has named Senor Rosario del Castillo Acting President, in order that he, Martinez, may turn his attention exclusively to military matters.

Costa Rica is quiet. On the 15th February the Chiva Hotel took fire, and was totally consumed, many persons losing their clothing and effects. The Government offered to take charge of the Republic, and to satisfy certain claims against the Government of Carrera, but to the proposition the Assembly refused to listen.

The Indian tribe of Teras then numbered nearly four thousand souls, and were in debt to the amount of $2,000 to the Costa Rican merchants. Among the Costa Rican merchants, however, to pay promptly be paid down at $5 000 quintals. At Puerto Limon it was held at $15 per quintal, 10 per cent. off for American gold.
