Manulle, the capital of the Phillippine Islands, was visited on the 3d of June by a terrible earthquake. Half the city was ruined, and about two thousand lives were lost. The p-pu-lation of the city is about 160,000, of whom 3000 are Europeans and 7000 Chinese.

It is thought there will be another drawing in Massachusetts for conscripts, as not one, in five comes up to the soldier's standard. Only sight thundred men have thus far been taken to camp-and a number of these have already managed from which handreds of them haver returned alive.

Alive was at there is nothing profane or highly ceneurable in this indiffereffece to the rave resilities of the hour. It is well meant on this soldier's part, and should be accepted with the best constraint that cam be put upon it. Fighting butles in anticipation is worse than fighting them in reality. "Cowards de a thousand deaths, brave pow but once." The brave soldier may well delike to dwell too closely on the horrors and fatalities of the apprencions particle; and it is not surprising that the abould affect, if he does not feel, an aversion to all ceremonial preparations for his porchied death. Criticiae or comment upon this key indifference to fate as we may, it must be admitted that when backed up by energy end endurance; it is the stuff that wins battles.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

CITY INTELLIGENCE est into the Killing of Jenkins .- Th

In the relief mind, the plan seemed feasible, but events occurred to interrupt and defeat it. Vick-burg and Port. Hudeon fell, and General Kosserans advinced somer than the rebels expected. Bucking could'nt possibly be spared from where he was. A courser was despatched post-haste to stop John Morgau, but he was too late; when he arrived Morgau was across the Chito. The rest of the story is bistory.—Louis-citle Journal.
