THEOD. VON LA HACHE, THE ORGANIST—The Picayune, referring to this well known composer, in his notice, dedicated to the Marseillaises de la Torre, expressly composed to be sung on board of the Bilboa de Gitay during her stay in our port, speaks of him as being one of the emigrants from New Orleans. We believe this is an error, for Mr. La Hache is still in our city.

We are in the habit of crediting the news which we borrow from our cotemporaries. It is too much to ask of the Trois Delta in reciprocity of the courtesy, especially when the matter it takes from our columns is the result of the tedious labor of translation.

The Prensa de la Habana of the 14th announces the arrival, on Sunday, the 12th, in the port of Havana of the Spanish sloop Pinta, from New Orleans. She had on board eighty passengers from this city, and a cargo of government tobacco.

Louisianians Killed, Wounded and Missing in the Battle of Sharpsburg.

The Picayune published yesterday an extra, containing, it says in its introductory, a "correct statement of the killed, wounded and missing of the 1st Louisiana Brigade, under the command of Brig. Gen. Harry T. Hays, and of the 4th Mississippi Brigade, under the command of Brig. Gen. Featherstone, at the battle of Sharpsburg.

We copy the casualties in the Louisiana corps as being the most immediately interesting to our readers:

THE SPANISH FRIGATE PRINCESA DE ASTURIAS—A New York correspondent writes as follows to the Prensa de la Habana:

This unpleasant guest of war, of H C M, is at present in this harbor.

The Princesa was the flag-ship in command of Sr De Alvarado. She arrived at this port on the morning of the 10th, by way of Hampton Roads, where she came to pretty to many, having left Havana on the 26th September.

The visit of the Spanish man-of-war has attracted the constant notice of the press, and the Herald of yesterday the 12th) especially devotes much of its space to a description of the vessel, doing full justice to the good taste and elegance of the interior distribution. That the most desirous, in a description of its fated, to inquire into the character of the officers and crew, and also published the names of each. It comes from the commander, Sr. Don Jose M Alvarado, to the members of the municipality.

It is also saying that the frigate will remain a few days in this port, and that the citizens of New York have a fine opportunity to visit a first class man-of-war, on board of which there is no doubt they will be received with that courtesy and hospitality characteristic of the officers of the Princesa de Asturias, and so natural to Caballeros Castellanos, etc.

Horrible Crime—A Child Abducted and Brutally Murdered.

One of the most horrible outrages that ever startled any community was perpetrated near this city on Friday or Saturday night. About seven o'clock on Friday evening a pretty and interesting little girl, Miss Caroline N Germain, residing on Second street, near Chestnut, was missed by her parents. Alarmed by her protracted absence, the latter and some friends of the family started out in search of her, and, after a diligent search, succeeded in finding her, which was consummated by midnight. Failed to discover any trace of her. On Saturday morning it was ascertained that the child had been seen early in the evening passing up Second street in company with a man, a stranger to those who met him.

A number of persons immediately started out, some to explore the woods in the vicinity of the city, and others to visit the neighboring levee and villages, for some of whom, after them and returned on Saturday evening dead pointed and returned on Saturday evening dead pointed and returned on Saturday evening dead pointed
