

NEW ORLEANS:
FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 31, 1862.

ARRIVAL OF CONFEDERATE PRISONERS.
The steamer St. Andrew arrived yesterday morning from Donaldsonville, bringing with it a large number of Confederate prisoners, belonging to the Eighteenth Louisiana Regiment, partly composed of the French legion. There were about two hundred and fifty captured after the fight at Napoleonville, Hayti Lafourcade. They were captured by General West's brigade on Monday last. Rebel loss, eight killed and fifty wounded.

OLD LIFE ORPHANS.—By reference to our column it will be seen that F. W. Blair, proprietor of this line, announced that on and after the 1st of November, the fare on the Tchoupitoulas street omnibus line will be two cents.
