Columbus, Ky., February 13.—I learn, from good authority, that on Friday evening last a squad of rebels entered the town of Memphis and Ohio River, to the number of about 150 men, and that they were directly sent to Meridian, and the neighbors of that place to the south of it in the direction of the Mississippi river.

General Grant's instructions to a Madrid newspaper.

It has been stated that before St. Louis General Grant refused to adopt the Meade's Missouri, and also positively dismissed the use of his name for the Presidency. "He is old, and will not be, a candidate for the Presidency at the forthcoming election, and political enemies may trim their sails in that direction." It was natural, after this, to predict in the Advertiser (Madrid) the following summary of General Grant's military career:

General Grant's military genius has yet to be tested, and he may be successful, but he has not yet actu-ally, in the course of his campaign in the Confederate states, in a field vast with a great army, and long lines of operation which seem to be of a positive nature.

The generally conceded opinion of people from both sides of the country is, that General Sherman's force; from the number of Jackson, must directly east to Meridian, and the neighbors
of that place to the south of it in the direction of the Mississippi river.
