A BRILLIANT METEORIC CHARACTER.—In Alderney Lott appears about the Canal street ferry landing, near the old town garden, in Country Road, to be a most high, thirty-five years old and slow fellow from whom to learn. It is most reluctantly that he yields the subject of all who have a taste for portable cut-nipine and floral splendors. The place is a private garden which, by request, and for open to visitors for two weeks, exclusively, Sunday the 31, and at small compensations designed merely to defray the necessary expenses of exhibition. All advertisements to this effect will be found elsewhere.

H. M. Mayer on Venice.—A solemn high Mass for the restoration of peace will be chanted in the Cathedral, opposite Jackson Square, on Sunday the 31 inst., at half past 9 o'clock. The occasion, we are glad to learn, will also be turned to the account of practical charity by taking up a collection for the benefit of the destitute families of the city. The Cathedral choir will be reinforced by a number of amateurs, kindly tendered by some of the gentlemen who are said to be talented and impressive exponents of the sentiment by contributing to their sense of the solemnity of passages from the great masters.

We acknowledge a polite invitation to attend the Mass from the ladies of the choir, and shall doubtless have the pleasure and happiness to attend.
