An AWAWARD PRACTURET —A Northers journal observes that the position lastly occupied by Mr. Maron at the Court of London, was only regarded possible without direct offense to the United States, by the unfortunate precedent the latter but ifformed one eight years ago. Then Col. French was considered "entitled to diplomatic privileges, in a very qualified degree, not as an accredited Minister, but simply as a person coming to present himself as such," etc. This decision of the United States Attorney General, was, it seems, quoted by the Britist Government as its justification for admitting Mr. Mason to diplomatic privileges "in a very qualified degree.
