Morganza, October 11. — M.—The weather was very bad, so we did not get across the river until 10 A. M. with some difficulty.

The following is just received:

Carter's Station, October 1st. — To General

Robt. E. Lee, in the field near the Rappahannock. — We arrived about a week yesterday morning, having been delayed by the heavy rain. We were all in high spirits, and had a good time, though we could not see much of each other.

The weather is still very bad, and the roads are now in a poor condition, but we are getting along well.

The roads are now in a fair condition, and we are now moving along.
