ARRIVAL OF THE GEORGE CROMWELL.—The United States mail steamship George Cromwell, Capt. Edward B. Vaill, from New York, crossed the bar early yesterday morning and reached her wharf last afternoon, with mails, merchandise and passengers, to Alfred Moulton, Agent. We are indebted to purser William D. Hempstead for the following reports, and for other esteemed courtesies.

Sunday 6th, at 1 P. M., latitude 34° 18', longitude 76° 30', he passed two United States gunboats, Connecticut and R. R. Cuyler, in chase of a large propeller supposed to be a blockade runner.

Tuesday 10th, at 8:30 P. M., 25 miles south west from Cape Lookout, passed a large side-wheel steamship standing to the south.

Friday 11th, at 9 A. M., Portugal, bearing W. N. W., 15 miles, saw a screw steamship bound north.

The George Cromwell has experienced head winds and heavy seas the entire passage.
