Fork Journals on the Situation in Tenuesses.

These mights be cause for quesaim se if a sec-cad rebel celumn were approaching Knoxville from Southwestern Virginia, situalizateusly with that from Chattanooga. While it is pos-sible that a force has been put in motion from the Virginia ima, it seems certain that it has not neared Knoxville collideredly to threaten Gen. Burnnide. A body of troops coming from that directed would have to merch nearly 150 miles over agreemely rough road, and could not come within many days march or Kuoxville without dee notice of its advance to our army. He information to that effect is yet made pub-
