

THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.

Office 75 Chartres street.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER, DECEMBER 2.

On our second page will be found short biographies of some heroes and other achievements.

Bazaar at the Vieux Carré. — The bazaar of this theater with which Mrs. Viola Russell is to be established Saturday evening, will be held at the Vieux Carré, and will be held, and more than young people will be there.

It is needless to recall the character and extent of the services she has rendered at the Vieux Carré. — She is only known by the name of the novelist, in which she is a species of madame, who is extremely valuable on a stage where variety and variety are presented and enjoyed.

Fair for the Benefit of St. Vincent de Paul Society, New Orleans. — The first fair of the year will be held at the St. Vincent de Paul Hall, on December 10, for the benefit of the poor.

Georgia prints contain the following dialogue, November 19.—For the Press of the State:

"We have had a special conference with the Secretary of War, and are able to assure you that we do not mean to let any man go to the front who has not been examined, and he has not been found fit for service.

The destruction of Atlanta, Mobile and Mobile has been mentioned, and he has been asked if he would like to see the troops in Georgia, to assist them in their work. He said, 'I am not in a position to do anything but what I have done.'

After this interview, he was asked if he would like to see the troops in Georgia, and he said, 'I would like to see them.'

He was then asked if he would like to
