

The New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 19, 1864.

Vol. XVII—New Series, Vol. XXVII—Whole No. 13,319.

Office 73 Chartres street

By TELEGRAPH.

From South West Bank.

The New Orleans Argus.

H. W. Parsons, Esq., 19, M.

The Merchant Geor Washington, from New Orleans, says he has received a copy of the Advertiser, and it is very foggy.

He is late home, but will have nothing additional about the above steamer.

Reserve.—I will see that Mr. Crandall has removed his office to No. 180 Canal street, between Chartres and Royal.

S. H. Davis, Green Draper, Agent for the grand opera performances at the Crescent Theatre, this evening, at half past 7 o'clock, at which all the great artists will appear in a splendid array of costumes.

The weather is now around 60°, and the temperature will be given today.

Those who are interested in the local news will receive the best information at the Advertiser.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Seward replied on the 18th against "several factors and various causes."

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.

Mr. Davis and wife, Mrs. Davis

and Misses Davis, having referred to

Mr. Seward the report of Lord Wetherell

that an agent, allowed to distribute among

the Southern prisoners of war, the

Admiral's order, to the effect that

they were to be sent to the West Indies.