THE DAILY BEE
Published every morning (except Sunday) at the office of the Bee, 73 Chartres street.
NEW ORLEANS:
FRIDAY MORNING, FEB 3, 1865

We are under special obligations to Mr. G. D. Strong, mail agent of the steamer Missouri, for a valuable addition to our Western files.

The Officers of the steamer Missouri have our thanks for acceptable attentions.

It will be seen that, owing to the delay of the Morning Star at the barrier, departure for New York is postponed to Sunday, 5th February, at 10 o'clock P. M.

THEATRE.—In looking at the face of a highly finished canvas few persons think of the delicate machinery of the interior or the care and skill by which it is put together and kept in motion. In much the same manner do the public, when entertained by artistic exhibitions and performances, forget those invisible agents without whose administrative and organizing services no artistic combination of efforts and results would be possible.

The Managers of a theatre and its Treasurer are such agents. Considerate lovers of the drama and theatre will never deny their claims to a hearty and influential recognition when only presented, as in the case of the joint benefit to-night of Mr Davey, Acting Manager, and Mr. Fisher, Treasurer, of the St. Charles Theatre—gentlemen of the real practical worth and professional skill we believe.

The bill of the occasion is an extra combination, including the Seven Sisters and Lucie d'Arville, Miss Pray in her favorite part of Lucie.

The Academy of Music.—The varied programme exhibited last night to a full house, and including the dancing and graceful equestrianism of La Petite Adaline the dashing riding of Mr F. Tourniaire, the graceful equitation of Mother Cooke Bell, and the Aerial miscellaneous display and Wednesday the features but seldom if ever incorporated in one organization, no matter what musical strength or resources. The animals form a distinct exhibition, showing a collection of well-trained dogs, monkeys, a white bear and a Shetland pony. The Hungarian Brothers, in the intricate and graceful combination of the trapeze performance, and Mr. Rockwell, in the gymnastic feats, will be all new to the audience on Saturday afternoon and evening next.

Mr. Parker Noyes.—We are permitted to publish the appended extract from a letter received in Havana, dated the 16th January.

"Mr. Noyes arrived on the 23d of the month, and left for Mexico on the 26th, in company with Mr. Corwin, the Minister designate to that country. Mr. Corwin will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Seward to Maximilian, and Mr. Noyes will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Corwin to Mr. Seward. I believe that he has procured a pass for Mr. Lamar, of Macon, to travel through the country to Puebla, where he expects to meet the emperor, who is a lover, disgusted with politics and the situation of the world. He expects to remain about four months."

Execution of Mobile Said to be Confirmed—General Condition of the City.

We take the following extract from the Bee, whatever it may be worthy in point of authority:

The town is now occupied by troops of Major-General Canby's command. A few days ago [illegible] which, in the judgment of the Commanding General, was not sufficiently loyal to the Union. [illegible] to receive pecuniary assistance from the Government, which would be refused to others. [illegible] Mr. Dorsey, Acting Manager, and Mr. Fisher, Treasurer, of the St. Charles Theatre—gentlemen of the real practical worth and professional skill we believe.

The bill of the occasion is an extra combination, including the Seven Sisters and Lucie d'Arville, Miss Pray in her favorite part of Lucie.

The Academy of Music.—The varied programme exhibited last night to a full house, and including the dancing and graceful equestrianism of La Petite Adaline the dashing riding of Mr F. Tourniaire, the graceful equitation of Mother Cooke Bell, and the Aerial miscellaneous display and Wednesday the features but seldom if ever incorporated in one organization, no matter what musical strength or resources. The animals form a distinct exhibition, showing a collection of well-trained dogs, monkeys, a white bear and a Shetland pony. The Hungarian Brothers, in the intricate and graceful combination of the trapeze performance, and Mr. Rockwell, in the gymnastic feats, will be all new to the audience on Saturday afternoon and evening next.

Mr. Parker Noyes.—We are permitted to publish the appended extract from a letter received in Havana, dated the 16th January.

"Mr. Noyes arrived on the 23d of the month, and left for Mexico on the 26th, in company with Mr. Corwin, the Minister designate to that country. Mr. Corwin will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Seward to Maximilian, and Mr. Noyes will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Corwin to Mr. Seward. I believe that he has procured a pass for Mr. Lamar, of Macon, to travel through the country to Puebla, where he expects to meet the emperor, who is a lover, disgusted with politics and the situation of the world. He expects to remain about four months."

Execution of Mobile Said to be Confirmed—General Condition of the City.

We take the following extract from the Bee, whatever it may be worthy in point of authority:

The town is now occupied by troops of Major-General Canby's command. A few days ago [illegible] which, in the judgment of the Commanding General, was not sufficiently loyal to the Union. [illegible] to receive pecuniary assistance from the Government, which would be refused to others. [illegible] Mr. Dorsey, Acting Manager, and Mr. Fisher, Treasurer, of the St. Charles Theatre—gentlemen of the real practical worth and professional skill we believe.

The bill of the occasion is an extra combination, including the Seven Sisters and Lucie d'Arville, Miss Pray in her favorite part of Lucie.

The Academy of Music.—The varied programme exhibited last night to a full house, and including the dancing and graceful equestrianism of La Petite Adaline the dashing riding of Mr F. Tourniaire, the graceful equitation of Mother Cooke Bell, and the Aerial miscellaneous display and Wednesday the features but seldom if ever incorporated in one organization, no matter what musical strength or resources. The animals form a distinct exhibition, showing a collection of well-trained dogs, monkeys, a white bear and a Shetland pony. The Hungarian Brothers, in the intricate and graceful combination of the trapeze performance, and Mr. Rockwell, in the gymnastic feats, will be all new to the audience on Saturday afternoon and evening next.

Mr. Parker Noyes.—We are permitted to publish the appended extract from a letter received in Havana, dated the 16th January.

"Mr. Noyes arrived on the 23d of the month, and left for Mexico on the 26th, in company with Mr. Corwin, the Minister designate to that country. Mr. Corwin will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Seward to Maximilian, and Mr. Noyes will be the bearer of dispatches from Mr. Corwin to Mr. Seward. I believe that he has procured a pass for Mr. Lamar, of Macon, to travel through the country to Puebla, where he expects to meet the emperor, who is a lover, disgusted with politics and the situation of the world. He expects to remain about four months."

New Orleans Bee.

Office 73 Chartres street. NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 3, 1865. Vol. XXVII—New Series. Vol. XVII—Whole No. 1,340.

Continued Extracts from Western Papers by the Steamer Missouri.

Important from San Francisco.

Cession of Sonora, Sinaloa and other Northern States of Mexico to the Emperor of France—Security for French Bonds Against Mexico—Decision to be Entered on Record of the United States—Guarantee of French Military Force to Secure their Debt—Conspiracy—Liberal Code of Laws, Encouragement to Emigration, &c.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—For [illegible] days of this week, which is likely to be [illegible] in the views of the Government, the [illegible] Mexico, and the unsettled [illegible] the Imperial [illegible]

Mr. Seward's views on the 23d of June in relation to Mexico [illegible] to agree to [illegible] Mexico, which declined [illegible] Mr. Seward told her Minister [illegible] Mr. Seward [illegible] Mexico, where he expects to [illegible] Mexico, [illegible] Mexico, [illegible] Mexico,