CONTENTS OF A CONFECTIONERY AT AUCTION AT THE SHERIFF.—The Sheriff sells at auction to-day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the premises, the contents of the confectionery No. 4 N. Peters street, between Customhouse and Royal, 2d District. The same will be sold in lots.

Up to a late hour last night nothing was heard from the Southwest Pass of either the Grecian or George Cromwell, which were to have sailed from New York on the 26th ultimo, would be due, supposing they left at that date, but the recent heavy fogs may have kept them waiting off the bar. The same fog was exceeding up the river, may have delayed the two steamers expected from Cuba.

THE ROBBER.—The celebrated work of Schiller will be played by the German Theatrical Company, this (Monday) evening at the New Opera House. A notice of the management says that Karl Moore and Schwarzer will display unsurpassed powers in spirited characters. A great table-bar representing a [illegible] will be erected in the second act, a section of the Tom Varnish [illegible].

Of course the occasion can fail to enlist the keen interest of our German fellow citizens, and of all who admire the splendid declamation and the vivid and touching delineation which came from Schiller's masterly pen.

TWO NIGHTS MORE OF THE SEVEN SISTERS.—The great spectacular extravaganza of the Seven Sisters, which would have been withdrawn on Saturday, has been continued, on account of the still unsatisfied demand to see it for two nights longer. The performance to-night at the St. Charles theatre will be a rare combination of the Seven Sisters and Louis D'Arville, Miss Provost and Leduc. The Webb sisters will appear on Wednesday.

LAST WEEK OF THE CIRCUS AT THE ACADEMY.—The present is announced as the last week of the Ocean Circus and Menagerie, during which, in addition to its daily performances, special matinees will be given on Saturday and Monday at noon.

THE VARIETIES THEATRE.—Extra Attraction.—The week will open here to-night with Broughton's play of Lady Audley's Secret, Mrs. Gladstone in the leading character, for another week. Mrs. Gladstone is the favorite of the Varieties audience, and will be welcomed on her return to the Varieties stage on Wednesday and Saturday next, when the Indian Maiden is announced. Attached thereto will be found the cards of various City and Atlantic Railroad companies.

OUTS WE CARE OF THE FREEDMEN.—The regulations relative to the employment and general welfare of freedmen will be found in full in the following report, by which the same supervision as are provided under previous conditions concerning commercial interests.

DEPARTMENTS IN THE COLONIES.

I. There shall be established in each State or one or more places to be known as Bureau Colonies, where all freedmen within the agency may be received and cared for in pursuance of these regulations.

SUPERINTENDENT OF FREEDMEN—HIS DUTIES.

II. A Superintendent of Freedmen will be appointed for each State, by the President, under the general direction of the Chief Superintendent and Special Agent.

CLASSIFICATION OF FREEDMEN AND THEIR WAGES.

III. All persons of proper age shall be classified as laborers, mechanics, and servants. The laborers shall be divided into three classes, viz: Those over 18 and under 45 years of age, shall be considered No. 1 hands; those between 14 and 18 and over 45 and under 60, No. 2; and those under 14 and over 60, No. 3. Persons suffering from any physical disability shall be classed according to their ability. The minimum rate of wages of No. 1 hands shall be [illegible] per month; No. 2, [illegible]; No. 3, [illegible]. These rates shall not restrict the services and others from contracting for higher wages, if they can do so.

ALLOWANCES FOR LABORERS TO BE PAID AND RECEIVED.

IV. Superintendents will see that the laborers under their charge receive the full amount of wages to which they are entitled, and that no deductions are made except such as are authorized by these regulations. They will also see that the laborers are paid or satisfactorily accounted for at the end of each month, and that provision is made for their support when they are sick or otherwise disabled. They will also see that the laborers are furnished at the proper time with the rations and clothing to which they are entitled, and that no impositions are practiced upon them in the sale of such articles by sutlers or other persons. They will also see that the laborers are furnished with such tools, implements, and materials as may be necessary to enable them to perform their work properly and to the best advantage.

HOURS OF LABOR AND REST.

V. The laborers shall be required to perform labor for the period of ten hours per day, with intervals of two hours for rest and refreshment, viz: one hour at noon and one hour in the afternoon, unless otherwise directed by the Superintendent. They shall be required to labor on Sundays only in cases of necessity, and in such cases they shall be allowed compensation for the same at the rate of one-fourth of their monthly wages in addition to the amount due them for the month in which the labor is performed.

PENALTIES FOR NEGLECT OF LABOR.

VI. In cases of neglect of labor, or refusal to perform the same, on the part of laborers, the Superintendent shall withhold from the offenders such proportion of their wages as he may deem just and proper, not exceeding one-fourth of the amount due for the month in which the offense occurs. He shall also have the power to arrest and confine in the guard-house, for a period not exceeding three days, any laborer who shall refuse to perform his proper share of labor, or who shall be guilty of disorderly conduct. He shall also have the power to discharge from the service any laborer who shall be guilty of repeated offenses of the character mentioned in this section, or who shall be habitually negligent in the performance of his duties. He shall also have the power to arrest and confine in the guard-house any person who shall entice away or employ any laborer who has been discharged for misconduct, or who has deserted the service of his employer, until the offender can be brought before the Superintendent for trial. He shall also have the power to arrest and confine in the guard-house any person who shall be guilty of inciting others to commit violence or depredations upon the property of the United States or of the Government employees, or who shall be guilty of any other disorderly conduct to the injury of the public service or the interruption of the peace and good order among the freedmen. He shall also have the power to arrest and confine in the guard-house any person who shall be guilty of inciting others to desert the service of their employers, or who shall be guilty of any other disorderly conduct to the injury of the public service or the interruption of the peace and good order among the freedmen. He shall also have the power to arrest and confine in the guard-house any person who shall be guilty of inciting others to commit violence or depredations upon the property of the United States or of the Government employees, or who shall be guilty of any other disorderly conduct to the injury of the public service or the interruption of the peace and good order among the freedmen.

Important Official Information to Planters.

Regulations concerning Plantation Labor, and the Relations of Employers and Employers.

By Circular No. 10 of the Treasury Department, dated Washington, D. C., January 29, 1865, the Secretary of the Treasury has prescribed the following regulations for the employment of freedmen on plantations within the States and districts which have been or may hereafter be occupied by the forces of the United States, and which are under the supervision of the Treasury Department. The regulations are designed to secure to the freedmen the enjoyment of their rights and privileges as free laborers, and at the same time to secure to the planters a sufficient supply of labor, and to protect them against the unjust claims of the freedmen. The following is the circular:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., January 29, 1865.
